Fire Destroys Robtown Home

TOTAL LOSS — The Norvil Vanover home near Robtown was declared a total loss following a fire early Friday morning. The fire, which was believed to have started with a faulty furnace, spread throughout the house by the time area firemen were able to respond.

Fire ravaged a $16,000 house near Robtown, completely destroying it and $5,000 worth of furnishings Friday morning.

The fire was first noticed by Deputy Sheriff Bill Dountz Friday morning while on routine patrol on Route 23 north.

He saw a bright light in the sky about 1:23 a.m. and drove toward it. He then discovered the Vanover home on Route 316 one mile west of Robtown to be on fire.

Fire departments from Commercial Point, Ashville and Williamsport answered the call for help, but arrived too late to save the structure.

1st Jet Hijacking To Cuba For 1969 Involves 146

MIAMI (AP) — An airliner with 146 persons aboard on a nonstop flight from New York to Miami was hijacked to Cuba Thursday night.

The jet, which landed in Havana at 1:05 a.m., EST today, was the first plane to be hijacked to Cuba this year. Last year there were 20 hijackings to Cuba, 13 of them from the United States.

Boston Blast Injures 4

CHELSEA, Mass. (AP) — A series of explosions ripped through an oil company storage area near Boston Harbor today, injuring four persons and sending flames hundreds of feet into the air.

The original explosion apparently came in pumping equipment as a driver was filling his tank truck with gasoline at the Gulf Oil Co. yard on Chelsea Creek in the inland northern section of the harbor.

Oil company officials near the scene said the fire appeared to be subsiding about an hour after it began.

Officials said the truck driver, Theodore Shirley, was standing on top of his truck. His blazing clothes were beaten out by an unidentified driver.

Three Chelsea firemen were injured seconds after arriving at the scene when an explosion blew a tank truck into their midst.

Electric Expansion Plans Announced

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Co. has announced proposed expenditure of $219 million over the next four years for new generation and transmission facilities.

J. L. McNealey, company president, said about 55 percent of the total will go into joint construction of facilities by Columbus and Southern, the Dayton Power and Light Co. and the Cincinnati Gas & Electric Co.

Heavy B52 Strikes Made Near Saigon

Only Scattered Ground Actions Are Reported

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command today reported the heaviest B52 strikes in South Vietnam in three weeks, with almost 1,000 tons of bombs dropped northwest of Saigon and nearly 500 tons on the mated U Minh Forest deep in the Mekong Delta.

Ground action remained light throughout the nation, although allied sweeps continued from the southern delta to an area southwest of Da Nang where American Marines and South Vietnamese troops were grinding away at Viet Cong and North Vietnamese forces.

Signs of fresh enemy movement also were reported from two more old battle areas—the A Shau Valley west of Hue and the demilitarized zone between North and South Vietnam.

Fliers from the carriers Coral Sea and Constellation hit the A Shau Valley with 31 sorties Thursday, the heaviest concentration of Naval air strength reported in one day since the bombing of North Vietnam was halted on Nov. 1.

U.S. headquarters reported also that enemy activity in the DMZ had increased sharply in the Christmas-New Year period, with more than 500 "indications of enemy activity" in the 12 days since Dec. 22.

Marine headquarters in Da Nang released an interim report on the massive cordon operation known as Taylor Common about 25 miles southwest of Da Nang. It said in the past month the Marines and South Vietnamese have killed 934 enemy troops.

The report said American and South Vietnamese losses have been light.

The road mining occurred about 20 miles to the south at a point where Vietnamese workers assemble for army transportation to their work. The mine exploded beneath an Army three-quarter-ton truck, killing 11 of the South Vietnamese crowded around. Another 16 were wounded, along with the two Americans in the truck.

U.S. headquarters reported three more big arms caches were turned up by allied sweeps today, adding to the mountain of war stores seized in recent months. American officers say that in 1968 U.S. and South Vietnamese forces captured enough weapons to equip more than six enemy infantry divisions. The Americans claim that this has been one of the chief reasons why enemy offensive operations have been curtailed.

Much of the booty has been taken in areas that previously had been touched only lightly by allied operations. Two of the supply dumps found today were in such areas—one in the U Minh Forest and the other a few miles from the Cambodian border northwest of Saigon.

The supplies seized included such items as 767 homemade grenades, 2,700 pounds of rice, cases of small arms and machine-gun ammunition and 4,000 yards of electric wire for field communications and for detonating mines.

F-f-fairbanks No Summer Resort

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP) — It's so cold they had to chop the cat out of the ice, the car radio goes "knock, knock" and propane torches shoot liquid instead of fire.

But Alaskans know how to cope with temperatures way below zero. They just stay indoors and go out only if it's necessary.

Central Alaska is in the middle of a frigid weather front that has sent temperatures tumbling like icicles in a spring thaw. It's been like that for three days.

However, it's expected to warm up today to temperatures of 25 to 20 below. Comfortable enough to celebrate Alaska's 10th year as a state today.

Thursday evening the mercury dropped to minus 56 and the overnight forecast called for a low of -65. The all-time low is -66 recorded on Jan. 14, 1934.

Schools have shut down but it's business as usual in downtown Fairbanks. About 42 inches of snow cover the ground although no new snow has fallen in a week.

Thick ice fog has cut visibility in some downtown areas to 10 feet and has disrupted airline schedules. It's caused by warm air rising from the ground which turns to fog as it hits the frigid air.

"Even with the minimal sunlight we get here. It's enough to warm the ground a bit and that causes the warm air to rise,"

Fresh Cold Wave On Way

Snow And Sleet In Forecast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A new wave of arctic cold spilled into the plains and Midwest today and ended a brief sampling of near-normal winter temperatures.

Snow, freezing rain and sleet broke out ahead of the fresh surge of frigid weather. Travelers warnings were issued for the central plains where snow or blowing snow reduced visibility.

A mixture of freezing rain and sleet spread across Missouri to Kentucky and Tennessee to make travel hazardous in portions of those states. Cold rain spreading northward from the Gulf Coast brought warnings of possible icing in northern Georgia and Alabama.

Temperatures bounded into the 20s and 30s across much of the plains and Midwest Thursday following three days of subzero cold. But the new chill was expected to drop the mercury into minus territory over much of the region by Saturday morning.

Snow flurries again dusted the area from the Great Lakes to the Appalachians, and local squalls dumped more snow along the eastern shores of Lakes Erie and Ontario. However, much of the East was several degrees warmer than early Thursday.

Rain lingered along the northern Pacific coast and light snow flaked inland to the Rockies.

For the most part, though, the Northwest gradually eased back to more normal conditions following its most severe winter storm in years. Portions of western Washington and Oregon were hit by a foot of snow and bitter-cold weather early in the week. The storm was blamed for 6 deaths in Washington and 16 in Oregon.

Shane O'Neill, a Fairbanks resident, said Thursday.

The Weather Bureau said the average temperature for December was -17.7 or 10 degrees colder than normal. The highest temperature for the month was 36 degrees on Dec. 19. New Year's Day it was 60 below—four degrees below the record for the day set in 1965. It warmed up Thursday to -59—another record for the date.

O'Neill said firemen had to free a cat after its paws became stuck in ground ice.

"Apparently it licked its paws because they were so cold and when it set them down they froze to the ground," he said.

And, in the icy conditions propane gas turns to liquid. "One fellow was using a propane torch outside to try and thaw an oil line to his house. The flame stopped and liquid started shooting."

Nixon To Flesh Out Ranks With Sub-Cabinet Choices

LOS ANGELES (AP) — President-elect Nixon, judged in "full good health to assume the challenges" of office, is preparing to fill out the top level roster of his new administration.

Nixon plans to announce Saturday the selection of Elliot L. Richardson, attorney general of Massachusetts, to be undersecretary of state, the No. 2 position in that department.

U. Alexis Johnson, now U.S. ambassador to Japan, is to be named undersecretary for political affairs, Washington sources reported.

These appointments, to be announced formally by the President-elect and Secretary of State-designate William P. Rogers, lead off a series of sub-Cabinet selections to be made before the Jan. 20 inauguration.

Soon to follow: Nominations to top jobs in the Agriculture Department and the Pentagon.

Nixon aides would not confirm the State Department choices. But Nixon seemed to do so obliquely in a bantering exchange with Robert H. Finch, who is to be secretary of health, education and welfare. He said Finch had tried to enlist Richardson as a top deputy for his department, but isn't going to get him.

The President-elect also said there will be six, perhaps as many as 10 Californians in the ranks of assistant and undersecretary yet to be named.

"The reason is a conscious effort is being made in the administration to provide geographic balance," he said at a Thursday luncheon honoring Finch, lieutenant governor of California.

"There is a tendency in Washington much from the New York, New England and Washington, D.C., part of the country," he said. "... We have tended to look to the Midwest and the far West."

That way, he said, the new administration can seek out the top talent in all sections of the nation.

Nixon underwent a 90-minute physical examination at the Long Beach office of Dr. John C. Lungren, his personal physician. Lungren pronounced his health excellent for the tasks ahead.

Normal accumulation for the year is 39.86 inches. The excess amounted to 46.64 inches for the year.

The biggest surplus of moisture for a period of time was during the month of May when flash floods on May 23 dropped nearly five inches of rain on the city in a 24-hour period. The total accumulation of rainfall for the 31-day month was a record 12.46 inches.

Temperature-wise, there were never any prolonged periods of extremes. There were but four days of sub-zero temperatures recorded in the city during 1968, the coldest reading occurring on January 7, when the mercury dipped to an uncomfortable 14 degrees below zero.

On the opposite end of the thermometer, the mercury hit the maximum temperature reading of 93 degrees on two days, July 18 and again on August 21.

The current weather forecast indicates some possible precipitation in the form of snow flurries and according to the local weather observer, the river bank is full at Red Bridge with the river level gauge stationary at 12.20 feet. Flood stage at the Scioto River is 14 feet.

Arthritis Cure Said On The Way

LONDON (AP) — British researchers say they know what causes rheumatoid arthritis, and they believe they can find a cure for the disease that cripples bone joints.

Dr. Joseph Chayen, head of the cellular biology division of the Kennedy Institute of Rheumatology, said in a statement Thursday: "We can safely say a cure is coming, but we don't know when. Many tests and trials have still to be done."

The institute said Chayen's team believes rheumatoid arthritis is caused by enzymes which escape from the cells of the joint lining and eat away cartilage tissue.

The researchers say their experiments have shown that two vitamins, C and K3, seal the leaking cell walls when they are injected into the bone joints.

Both houses have before them a proposal to raise their own pay and the salaries of top federal officers including the President.

The House may have to grapple with the problem of whether to seat New York's Adam Clayton Powell, ousted in 1967 after being accused of misusing federal funds.

Soviet Peace Plan Studied By Big Four

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israeli anger at the world's concern for Lebanon and its airplanes increased Thursday. Foreign Minister Abba Eban criticized the U.N. Security Council and the Sephardic chief rabbi attacked Pope Paul VI.

Meanwhile, the once quiet Lebanese-Israeli border erupted day night, and the Big Four powers continued talking about a Soviet proposal for joint peace action.

Chief Rabbi Yitzhak Nissim, head of Israel's Sephardic community, criticized the Pope for his message to Lebanon expressing sympathy for the loss of 13 commercial aircraft destroyed by the Israeli commando raid on Beirut airport late Saturday.

In a broadcast over the state radio, Rabbi Nissim said the Pope had kept silent after the Nov. 22 bombing that killed 13 Israelis in a Jerusalem market and after the Dec. 26 Arab attack on an El Al airliner in Athens in which one Israeli died.

"Here," he said, "are clear signs of two tendencies on the part of the pontiff: A comprehensive war against the Jewish faith and against the country which God gave to His people."

"The Pope was not shocked over the shedding of blood... but rather over material things."

It was the second attack on the Pope in as many days. Dr. Zerah Warhaftig, minister of religious affairs, made a similar complaint.

At a news conference in Tel Aviv, Eban denounced the Security Council resolution condemning the Israeli raid and suggested—

First-Edition 'Declaration' Is Discovered

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A rare, first-edition printing of the Declaration of Independence has been discovered in a Philadelphia book store.

The copy was printed in straightline form by John Dunlap and dated July 4, 1776. It was authenticated as genuine by the American Philosophical Society, which also owns one of the Dunlap Prints. The Society said the copy is only the sixth known one.

The document was discovered in a scrapbook at Leary's, a 132-year-old downtown book store which closed recently. Employees now are preparing to auction away its stock.

Edward R. Poole, Leary's manager, said Thursday the scrapbook was in a sixth floor corner—a jumbled collection of unlisted documents, papers and scrapbooks known to employees as "that corner."

"I always had a hunch something valuable was in there," said Poole. "But I was thinking more in terms of plates of books Leary's published many years ago."

The copy, believed worth more than $30,000, was turned over to an auctioneer, who will sell it. In 1951 a similar copy turned over to the National Park Service now is displayed at Independence Hall. Officials say it was then valued at $27,500.

Rep. 'Buz' Lukens Contracts Malaria

PARIS (AP)—Rep. Donald E. Lukens, R-Ohio, is undergoing treatment in a hospital here for malaria, Lukens said Thursday that he contacted the disease on a recent trip to Biafra, Africa. "What may have happened," Lukens said, "was that I stopped taking malaria pills when I left Africa. You're not supposed to do that. You're supposed to continue for a few days."

Teddy Kennedy Unseats Long; Named Demo Whip

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts won his bid to become the Senate's assistant Democratic leader as the 91st Congress opened today.

The House settled its leadership problems Thursday with predictable results as Speaker John W. McCormack of Massachusetts easily defeated the unprecedented challenge of Arizona Democrat Morris Udall. Republican Gerald Ford of Michigan won re-election unopposed as minority leader.

In the Senate, Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts, in a move regarded as a first step toward a possible 1972 presidential bid, put up a close race with Louisiana's Russell B. Long for the No. 2 Democratic job of whip.

On the GOP side, Pennsylvania's Hugh Scott challenged for the whip position in another tight race with Nebraska's Roman Hruska.

The top Senate posts in each party remained in the hands of Democrat Mike Mansfield of Montana, majority leader, and Republican Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, minority leader, who were unopposed.

In an 11th hour challenge, Michigan's Robert P. Griffin announced for the chairmanship of the Republican Policy Committee against Colorado Gordon Allott.

Although the position has declined in influence in recent years, Robert A. Taft once used it in his climb to Senate power.

With leadership contests and other formalities out of the way, the House and Senate will meet in joint session Monday to caucus presidential election returns, then turn to an array of issues that could provide early fireworks.

Both houses have before them a proposal to raise their own pay and the salaries of top federal officers including the President.

The House may have to grapple with the problem of whether to seat New York's Adam Clayton Powell, ousted in 1967 after being accused of misusing federal funds.

Fire Destroys Robtown Home

TOTAL LOSS — The Norvil Vanover home near Robtown was declared a total loss following a fire early Friday morning. The fire, which was believed to have started with a faulty furnace, spread throughout the house by the time area firemen were able to respond.

Fire ravaged a $16,000 house near Robtown, completely destroying it and $5,000 worth of furnishings Friday morning. The fire was first noticed by Deputy Sheriff Bill Dountz Friday morning while on routine patrol on Route 23 north.

Fire departments from Commercial Point, Ashville and Williamsport answered the call for help, but arrived too late to save the structure.

CAUSE of the fire has not been determined, although Sheriff Dwight Radcliff stated that he believes an overheated furnace might have started the flame.

Whereabouts of Norvil Vanover, owner of the house, and his wife and two children was unknown following the fire. Fear was expressed by neighbors and firemen that some members of the family might have been caught in the flaming building.

Later Friday morning the Vanover car was identified in Grove City by police there. The entire family was found to be safe at the home of Mrs. Vanover's sister, where they had gone to spend the night following a trip.

1st Jet Hijacking To Cuba For 1969 Involves 146

MIAMI (AP) — An airliner with 146 persons aboard on a nonstop flight from New York to Miami was hijacked to Cuba Thursday night.

The jet, which landed in Havana at 1:05 a.m., EST today, was the first plane to be hijacked to Cuba this year. Last year there were 20 hijackings to Cuba, 13 of them from the United States.

Eastern Airlines said its DC-8-61 carrying 138 passengers and eight crew members left New York's Kennedy airport at 9:52 p.m. and was due in Miami at 12:30 a.m.

About an hour before Flight 401 was scheduled to land at Miami International Airport, Capt. Dennis Vanhuss radioed the Federal Aviation Administration at Jacksonville, Fla., FFA supervisor, Harold Jensen, said Vanhuss reported, "I am going to Havana."

The plane at that point was 60 miles east of Jacksonville.

The FAA said the Eastern plane was cleared direct to Cuba soon after the hijacking was reported.

After landing in Cuba, hijacked planes usually are flown to Miami by the crew while passengers go by bus to Varadero—a three-hour ride—and are picked up there by planes sent from Florida.

The last previous hijacking to Cuba, also an Eastern plane, was on Dec. 19, 1968, when a jet flying nonstop from Philadelphia to Miami was diverted.

On Thursday the FBI at Miami filed a complaint naming Thomas George Washington, 27, of Gary, Ind., as its hijacker.

The FBI said Washington took his daughter, Jennifer Robin, 3, from his divorced wife in Philadelphia and boarded the plane along with 140 other passengers.

Boston Blast Injures 4

CHELSEA, Mass. (AP) — A series of explosions ripped through an oil company storage area near Boston Harbor today, injuring four persons and sending flames hundreds of feet into the air.

The original explosion apparently came in pumping equipment as a driver was filling his tank truck with gasoline at the Gulf Oil Co. yard on Chelsea Creek in the inland northern section of the harbor.

Oil company officials near the scene said the fire appeared to be subsiding about an hour after it began.

Officials said the truck driver, Theodore Shirley, was standing on top of his truck. His blazing clothes were beaten out by an unidentified driver.

Three Chelsea firemen were injured seconds after arriving at the scene when an explosion blew a tank truck into their midst.

Portions of western Washington and Oregon were hit by up to a foot of snow and bitter-cold weather early in the week. The storm was blamed for 6 deaths in Washington and 16 in Oregon.

Find Garage Man Brutally Shot, Stabbed

CINCINNATI (AP) — An employee at a private downtown parking garage was found brutally murdered early today and evidence at the scene led police to believe the victim had battled fiercely with his assailants. A safe had been rifled.

The body of Harry Danford, 65, Covington, Ky., was found by State Rep. Chester Cruise as he returned for his car about 2 a.m. Danford had been shot, beaten and stabbed, officers said. About $35 was missing from the safe.

Cruise, a former Hamilton County assistant prosecutor, said as he neared the Olympic Auto Park, located on Seventh Street near Walnut, he heard a young boy screaming and pointing in the direction of the cashier's office of the garage.

Police said a large caliber automatic pistol was found near the body and Danford's own .38-caliber pistol was missing from its usual place in a desk drawer. Ballistics tests were being made of a lug removed from the door of the office and officer said it may have been fired from the victim's pistol.

The telephone cord had been pulled from its outlet.

An unidentified passerby said he heard what sounded like several shots about 30 minutes before the body was found and saw a car with two white men speed away.

Danford was a 20-year employee of the parking firm.

Arthritis Cure Said On The Way

LONDON (AP) — British researchers say they know what causes rheumatoid arthritis, and they believe they can find a cure for the disease that cripples bone joints.

Dr. Joseph Chayen, head of the cellular biology division of the Kennedy Institute of Rheumatology, said in a statement Thursday: "We can safely say a cure is coming, but we don't know when. Many tests and trials have still to be done."

The institute said Chayen's team believes rheumatoid arthritis is caused by enzymes which escape from the cells of the joint lining and eat away cartilage tissue.

The researchers say their experiments have shown that two vitamins, C and K3, seal the leaking cell walls when they are injected into the bone joints.

Retarded GI Still Faces Army Exams

SCAPPOOSE, Ore. (AP) — Robert J. Hinkle, 21, undergoes special examinations today as his parents continue their fight with the Army to keep him out of Vietnam.

"He's just a little boy. He'd be killed sure," said his mother, Mrs. Robert R. Hinkle.

"We've been given the run-around for seven months," says his father. "They said at Ft. Ord he would be sent to Ft. Lewis to serve his two years, but when his orders came out they read to Vietnam."

Robert, described by his father as a youth with a mental age of a 10-year-old, was to have left today for Oakland, Calif., and shipment to Vietnam.

Instead he goes to Ft. Lewis, Wash., from his parents' farm home near this northwestern Oregon community where he has been spending his Christmas furlough. There he will have both physical and mental examinations, his father said.

The Army told Rep. Wendell Wyatt, R-Ore., it found no reason to give Robert a mental disability discharge.

Cincy Resident Gunned Down

CINCINNATI (AP) — A man walking near the downtown section early today was slain by a shot fired from a passing car, police said.

He was identified as Moses Thrasher, 44.

Witnesses said at least four men were riding in the late-model auto which slowed as it approached Thrasher at Liberty and Main Streets.

Police said there was no apparent motive for the slaying.

First-Edition 'Declaration' Is Discovered

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A rare, first-edition printing of the Declaration of Independence has been discovered in a Philadelphia book store.

The copy was printed in straightline form by John Dunlap and dated July 4, 1776. It was authenticated as genuine by the American Philosophical Society, which also owns one of the Dunlap Prints. The Society said the copy is only the sixth known one.

The document was discovered in a scrapbook at Leary's, a 132-year-old downtown book store which closed recently. Employees now are preparing to auction away its stock.

Edward R. Poole, Leary's manager, said Thursday the scrapbook was in a sixth floor corner—a jumbled collection of unlisted documents, papers and scrapbooks known to employees as "that corner."

"I always had a hunch something valuable was in there," said Poole. "But I was thinking more in terms of plates of books Leary's published many years ago."

The copy, believed worth more than $30,000, was turned over to an auctioneer, who will sell it. In 1951 a similar copy turned over to the National Park Service now is displayed at Independence Hall. Officials say it was then valued at $27,500.

Rep. 'Buz' Lukens Contracts Malaria

PARIS (AP)—Rep. Donald E. Lukens, R-Ohio, is undergoing treatment in a hospital here for malaria. Lukens said Thursday that he contacted the disease on a recent trip to Biafra, Africa.

"What may have happened," Lukens said, "was that I stopped taking malaria pills when I left Africa. You're supposed to do that. You're supposed to continue for a few days."

Teddy Kennedy Unseats Long; Named Demo Whip

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts won his bid to become the Senate's assistant Democratic leader as the 91st Congress opened today.

The Republicans also chose a new man.

Just before Kennedy unseated Sen. Russell B. Long of Louisiana, Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania was chosen by Republicans as assistant minority leader—or "whip"—over conserva-na Democrat Morris Udall. Republican Gerald Ford of Michigan won re-election unopposed as minority leader.

In the Senate, Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts, in a move regarded as a first step toward a possible 1972 presidential bid, put up a close race with Louisiana's Russell B. Long for the No. 2 Democratic job of whip.

On the GOP side, Pennsylvania's Hugh Scott challenged for the whip position in another tight race with Nebraska's Roman Hruska.

The top Senate posts in each party remained in the hands of Democrat Mike Mansfield of Montana, majority leader, and Republican Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, minority leader, who were unopposed.

In an 11th hour challenge, Michigan's Robert P. Griffin announced for the chairmanship of the Republican Policy Committee against Colorado Gordon Allott.

Although the position has declined in influence in recent years, Robert A. Taft once used it in his climb to Senate power.

With leadership contests and other formalities out of the way, the House and Senate will meet in joint session Monday to canvass presidential election returns, then turn to an array of issues that could provide early fireworks.

Both houses have before them a proposal to raise their own pay and the salaries of top federal officers including the President.

The House may have to grapple with the problem of whether to seat New York's Adam Clayton Powell, ousted in 1967 after being accused of misusing federal funds.

Huston Named DSA Fete Speaker

APPRECIATION — Bob Holycross (left) manager of the local Big Bear Store is shown here receiving a "Certificate of Appreciation" from local Jaycee president Asa Elsea for providing the Big Bear parking lot for sale of the Jaycee Christmas trees.

Jim Huston, defensive linebacker of the Cleveland Browns and former Ohio State Buckeye great, will be the featured speaker at the Circleville Jaycees Distinguished Service Award Banquet, 6:30 p.m. Jan. 20 in the 4-H and Grange Building, Jerry Leist, chairman of the DSA announced today.

This area's outstanding young farmer, young man, young educator and senior citizen will be honored at the affair.

Approximately 200 are expected to attend. Master of ceremonies for the program will be George Hamrick. All area residents are invited by the Jaycees to attend. Tickets are on sale and can be purchased from any member of the Circleville Jaycees.

CIRCLEVILLE Jaycees held their first meeting of 1969 Thursday. The meeting was chaired by Asa Elsea president.

State Director Tom Elsea reported that the next All-State meeting will be held on Feb. 8 and 9 in Parma Heights. He encouraged all members to attend.

Other reports included the DSA Banquet by chairman Jerry Leist, Phil Van Meter, chairman of Jaycee Week, reported the "tabloid" newspaper is going to press today.

Bob Liggett reported that 5,750 children passed through the Santa House this year — 150 more than last year and Ron James informed the members that over 400 Christmas trees were sold this year.

Other business included the approval of 6 new members. The next regular meeting will be held Jan. 16.

The cold also flattens car tires by decreasing the air pressure inside. "It's like riding on square tires until they loosen up," said O'Neill. Motorists are advised to increase the air pressure.

Even cars with special heaters that plug into outside outlets won't work.

"Unless they're inside a warm garage they won't start. I turned on my car radio today and it went knock, knock. It sounded like a hammer pounding on the thing. Later it warmed up and worked all right."

Homeowners must constantly check fuel and water pipes. And precautions must be taken to guard against frostbitten ears. "It's very painful when they thaw out. They turn white, then after eight or 12 hours they're red and if you're lucky the outer skin won't peel off," O'Neill said.

Burglars Hit Miami Trace

Miami Trace High School in Fayette County was hit by burglars for the second time within a month. The burglary was one of three investigated by Fayette County Sheriff's Deputies over the New Year holiday.

It was on Dec. 10 that safe burglars accidentally set the school's office complex ablaze with an acetylene torch and caused an estimated $10,000 damage which closed the school for two days. During the more recent holiday burglary of the school, officers found doors to the custodian's room and the industrial arts shop were forced but nothing was reported as missing. Entrance to the building had been gained by prying open the exterior door to the boiler room.

The incident occurred sometime within a 24-hour period between 4 p.m. New Year's Eve and the following day.

Protest Award; Change Is Worse

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Santa Fe Railroad protested a court order that it pay $102,000 to Donald P. Ruckman an employee who claimed he suffered spinal, neck and head injuries when a freight train he was on struck a boulder in 1963.

The railroad went to court and won a new trial. Thursday it was ordered by a jury to pay Ruckman $266,237 damages.

"If Israel were wiped out completely by the Arabs, the Security Council would do and say nothing," Eban declared, referring to the Soviet veto which has blocked every attempt to ensure the Arabs.

Asked about the recommendation for compensation, Eban said, "What is suggested by the press for the family of the man murdered in Athens?"

He accused the United Nations of reserving its compassion for "the steel, the girders, the money" while ignoring the fact that "hundreds of our people have fallen as victims of Arab violence" over the past two decades.

On the diplomatic front, the Soviet Union pressed its campaign for a unified Big Four effort to promote a settlement favorable to the Arabs and sent its ambassadors in Washington, London and Paris to confer with State Department and Foreign Office officials and with President Charles de Gaulle.

In Cairo, a confidante of President Gamal Abdel Nasser hinted Egypt may resort to military action in order to improve the Arab bargaining position if the big powers try to settle the crisis.

Meanwhile, a British firm was reported preparing to ship anti-aircraft missiles to Jordan. They are expected to be in place by the time Israel gets its new Phantom jets from the United States.

The missile contract, signed last year, will give protection to Jordanian targets that have been virtually defenseless since Hussein's air force was wiped out in the June 1967 war with Israel. Israel is protected by American Hawk missiles and is developing other rockets of its own.

$200 Bond Forfeited For Drag Racing

James Baker, 24, 456 N. Court St., forfeited a $200 bond in Circleville Municipal Court Thursday when he failed to appear for a hearing.

Baker was cited by Circleville Policeman William Pontious for drag racing.

Earl Jester, 22, Mt. Sterling was fined $100 and costs by Judge Lamb when he pleaded guilty to giving false information pertaining to an automobile accident.

Judge Lamb suspended $50 of the fine. Jester was cited into court by Pickaway County Deputy Sheriff Bill Dountz.

Marcella J. Dyke, 18, 626 S. Clinton St., and Jerry Lee Brizner, 20, Williamsport, both forfeited $24 bonds for speeding 40 miles per hour in a 25 mile zone.

Robert Lee Wilson, 76, Route 3, forfeited a $24 bond for failure to yield the right of way.

George W. Young, 46, Tariton, forfeited a $60 bond for reckless operation.

Motorists who do not live in the Pickaway County area paid fines, costs and bond forfeitures totaling $600.

Select 27 Negro Officers For Promotion To Colonel

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has selected 27 Negro officers for promotion to full colonel in a move to encourage more Negroes to make the service a career.

The action will double the number of Negroes now rated "bird" colonel and set the stage for possible advancement of more Negroes to the rank of general.

In its long history the Army has had only two Negro generals—Brig. Gen. Frederic E. Davison, deputy commander of the 199th Light Infantry Brigade in Vietnam, and retired Brig. Gen. Benjamin O. Davis Sr.

A Pentagon spokesman said the 27 Negroes were among 1,053 Army officers selected for advancement beyond "light" colonel in a list drawn up last Nov. 6.

Jack Moskowitz, a deputy secretary of defense specializing in civil rights matters, hailed the move as "bound to encourage" more Negroes to aim for careers in the service. He said in an interview it is "proof" there is equality in the armed forces.

Moskowitz acknowledged that the services have been relatively slow elevating Negro officers to higher ranks since segregated units were banned in 1948, but "there's been a lot of spurting going on," he said.

When President Harry S. Truman ordered the desegregation of military units in 1948, the Army had only one Negro colonel among its 1,306 black officers.

In 1962, when President John F. Kennedy ordered a new look at equality in the services, there were only six Negro colonels.

The number rose to 10 in 1964, dropped to nine in 1965, then rose again to 16 in 1966 and to 27 by the end of 1967.

"We used to get complaints from Negroes and civil rights organizations that there weren't enough Negro officers in the higher levels," Moskowitz said. "We told them it was simply a matter of time and numbers."

Man Arrested For Forgery, No License

A man believed to be involved in the recent burglaries around the county, was arrested by Sheriff Dwight Radcliff Thursday.

Roy Lynn, from Florida, was arrested by the sheriff on charges of operating a car without a license and forging a car leasing contract with Hannan Ford Company.

He had signed his name as William Keyton when leasing a car from the local company recently.

Lynn, who gave his occupation as magazine salesman, was taken to Municipal Court Friday morning where he was fined $100 plus costs and given 10 days in jail for driving without a license, and was placed on $1,500 bond and bound to the grand jury for the forgery case.

A possible relationship between Lynn and the recent burglaries is still being investigated, according to Sheriff Radcliff.

Harrisburg Man Charged With Disorderliness

A Harrisburg man, who allegedly held his wife and family at gun-point Thursday night, was tried in Municipal Court Friday morning.

Harmon Gillespie Sr. was arrested about 7:30 p.m. Thursday night by Sheriff Dwight Radcliff. Radcliff had been called by Mrs. Gillespie who stated that her husband had held her and her family at gunpoint and then left but that he would be back.

The Pickaway County sheriff, the marshal of Harrisburg and two sheriff's cruisers from Franklin County converged to arrest Gillespie. No weapon was found at the time of arrest.

Gillespie was charged with disorderly conduct and was fined $100 plus costs by Municipal Court Judge Sterling Lamb early Friday morning. The fine and costs were suspended by the judge.

FOP Elects 1969 Officers

The Fraternal Order of Police, Circleville Chapter, held its annual election of officers Thursday.

City Patrolman Larry Pontious was elected president, succeeding Turney Ross, retired police sergeant.

Cpl. Ralph Schroer of the local Ohio State Highway Patrol Post was named vice president. He replaces Sgt. James Pribble, local patrol post commander.

City Patrolman Jack Mills was reelected secretary-treasurer and City Patrolman Leonard Sines was elected to a three-year term as trustee.

The local FOP chapter is composed of members of the City Police Department and the Ohio State Highway Patrol. The installation of officers will be Jan. 30.

Battery Stolen

Larry Wright, 230 Franklin St., told Circleville Police a battery was stolen from his car between 8 and 11 p.m. Thursday.

His car was parked on Clinton St. when the theft occurred.

Clerk Of Courts Lists 1968 Report

Common Pleas Court of Pickaway County disposed of 446 cases during the year 1968, according to the annual report released Friday by Sara Dresbach, clerk of courts.

There were 235 cases carried into 1968 from 1967, according to the court report, and 459 cases were filed during 1968. The court has carried 248 cases from 1968 forward into 1969.

Of the 446 cases disposed of by the court during 1968, 206 were divorce cases, 145 were civil cases and 95, criminal cases.

During the last month of the year the court disposed of 41 cases. Eight of the cases were criminal, 19 civil and 14 were domestic relations cases.

TWO of the criminal cases handled in December were tried by the court and two by jury. The remaining four criminal cases were settled or dismissed. The court tried 10 domestic cases during the last month of the year with the remaining four cases settled or dismissed. Of the civil cases disposed of during the month, nine were settled or dismissed and five were cognovit or default judgments.

Presently pending before the court are 107 divorce cases, 95 civil cases and 46 criminal cases which were first filed in 1968.

Even the usually routine canvass of presidential returns could provide a spark or two.

Sen. Edmund Muskie, D-Maine, and Rep. James O'Hara, D-Mich., said they will ask Congress Monday to reject a North Carolina electoral vote cast for third party candidate George C. Wallace and award it to Nixon. Nixon carried North Carolina, but because of the switch got only 12 of the state's 13 votes.

The pair said they wanted to "insure the integrity of this election . . . and to effectively dramatize the danger of continuing to operate under this outmoded, haphazard and undemocratic method of electing a president."

The Powell issue is the thorniest facing the House.

Powell has twice been re-elected by his Harlem district since he was denied his seat in the 90th Congress.

Some Republicans are planning to move to seat the New Yorker this time but fine him $40,000, strip him of seniority and censure him. Others said they flatly oppose seating him and it takes only one objection to force a roll call.

March Of Dimes Drive Underway

January will mark the beginning of "a happier New Year" for countless victims of birth defects if everyone responds to the mail appeals for contributions now being sent out by the March of Dimes during its annual fund-raising campaign.

The importance of full community support was stressed by Mrs. Larry Arnold, mailer chairman for the Pickaway County Chapter.

"Your checks will help finance more than 100 March of Dimes Birth Defects Centers where skilled medical specialists are setting standards for treatment and rehabilitation of children born less than perfect," she said.

"Nor does our work end there. Research studies also are being conducted in many parts of the country to determine the causes of these tragedies and how they can be prevented. During the year, many of our chapters conduct public education classes in communities throughout the nation on the value of prenatal care and other aspects of birth defects prevention."

These, and other March of Dimes programs require large sums of money, Mrs. Arnold explained. "For the sake of our children, and their children, each of us has a stake in the success of this campaign," she said, in urging a generous response to the mail appeal.

The missile contract, signed last year, will give protection to Jordanian targets that have been virtually defenseless since Hussein's air force was wiped out in the June 1967 war with Israel. Israel is protected by American Hawk missiles and is developing other rockets of its own.

Bob Liggett reported that 5,750 children passed through the Santa House this year — 150 more than last year and Ron James informed the members that over 400 Christmas trees were sold this year.

Other business included the approval of 6 new members. The next regular meeting will be held Jan. 16.

ing out," O'Neill said.

The cold also flattens car tires by decreasing the air pressure inside. "It's like riding on square tires until they loosen up," said O'Neill. Motorists are advised to increase the air pressure.

Even cars with special heaters that plug into outside outlets won't work.

"Unless they're inside a warm garage they won't start. I turned on my car radio today and it went knock, knock. It sounded like a hammer pounding on the thing. Later it warmed up and worked all right."

Homeowners must constantly check fuel and water pipes.

And precautions must be taken to guard against frostbitten ears. "It's very painful when they thaw out. They turn white, then after eight or 12 hours they're red and if you're lucky the outer skin won't peel off," O'Neill said.

Burglars Hit Miami Trace

Miami Trace High School in Fayette County was hit by burglars for the second time within a month. The burglary was one of three investigated by Fayette County Sheriff's Deputies over the New Year holiday.

It was on Dec. 10 that safe burglars accidentally set the school's office complex ablaze with an acetylene torch and caused an estimated $10,000 damage which closed the school for two days. During the more recent holiday burglary of the school, officers found doors to the custodian's room and the industrial arts shop were forced but nothing was reported as missing. Entrance to the building had been gained by prying open the exterior door to the boiler room.

The incident occurred sometime within a 24-hour period between 4 p.m. New Year's Eve and the following day.

Protest Award; Change Is Worse

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Santa Fe Railroad protested a court order that it pay $102,000 to Donald P. Ruckman an employee who claimed he suffered spinal, neck and head injuries when a freight train he was on struck a boulder in 1963.

The railroad went to court and won a new trial. Thursday it was ordered by a jury to pay Ruckman $266,237 damages.

Select 27 Negro Officers For Promotion To Colonel

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has selected 27 Negro officers for promotion to full colonel in a move to encourage more Negroes to make the service a career.

The action will double the number of Negroes now rated "bird" colonel and set the stage for possible advancement of

Man Arrested For Forgery, No License

A man believed to be involved in the recent burglaries around the county, was arrested by Sheriff Dwight Radcliff Thursday.

Roy Lynn, from Florida, was arrested by the sheriff on charges of operating a car without a license and forging a car leasing contract with Hannan Ford Company.

He had signed his name as William Keyton when leasing a car from the local company recently.

Lynn, who gave his occupation as magazine salesman, was taken to Municipal Court Friday morning where he was fined $100 plus costs and given 10 days in jail for driving without a license, and was placed on $1,500 bond and bound to the grand jury for the forgery case.

A possible relationship between Lynn and the recent burglaries is still being investigated, according to Sheriff Radcliff.

Harrisburg Man Charged With Disorderliness

A Harrisburg man, who allegedly hit his wife and family at gun-point Thursday night, was tried in Municipal Court Friday morning.

Harmon Gillespie Sr. was arrested about 7:30 p.m. Thursday night by Sheriff Dwight Radcliff. Radcliff had been called by Mrs. Gillespie who stated that her husband had held her and her family at gunpoint and then left but that he would be back.

The Pickaway County sheriff, the marshal of Harrisburg and two sheriff's deputies from Franklin County converged to arrest Gillespie. No weapon was found at the time of arrest.

Gillespie was charged with disorderly conduct and was fined $100 plus costs by Municipal Court Judge Sterling Lamb early Friday morning. The fine and costs were suspended by the judge.

FOP Elects 1969 Officers

The Fraternal Order of Police, Circleville Chapter, held its annual election of officers Thursday.

City Patrolman Larry Pontious was elected president, succeeding Turney Ross, retired police sergeant.

Cpl. Ralph Schroer of the local Ohio State Highway Patrol Post was named vice president. He replaces Sgt. James Pribble, local patrol post commander.

City Patrolman Jack Mills was reelected secretary-treasurer and City Patrolman Leonard Sines was elected to a three-year term as trustee.

The local FOP chapter is composed of members of the City Police Department and the Ohio State Highway Patrol. The installation of officers will be Jan. 30.

Battery Stolen

Larry Wright, 230 Franklin St., told Circleville Police a battery was stolen from his car between 8 and 11 p.m. Thursday.

His car was parked on Clinton St. when the theft occurred.

more Negroes to the rank of general.

In its long history the Army has had only two Negro generals—Brig. Gen. Frederic E. Davison, deputy commander of the 199th Light Infantry Brigade in Vietnam, and retired Brig. Gen. Benjamin O. Davis Sr.

A Pentagon spokesman said the 27 Negroes were among 1,053 Army officers selected for advancement beyond "light" colonel in a list drawn up last Nov. 6.

Jack Moskowitz, a deputy secretary of defense specializing in civil rights matters, hailed the move as "bound to encourage" more Negroes to aim for careers in the service. He said in an interview it is "proof" there is equality in the armed forces.

Moskowitz acknowledged that the services have been relatively slow elevating Negro officers to higher ranks since segregation units were banned in 1948, but "there's been a lot of spurring going on," he said.

When President Harry S. Truman ordered the desegregation of military units in 1948, the Army had only one Negro colonel among its 1,306 black officers.

In 1962, when President John F. Kennedy ordered a new look at equality in the services, there were only six Negro colonels.

The number rose to 10 in 1964, dropped to nine in 1965, then rose again to 15 in 1966 and to 27 by the end of 1967.

"We used to get complaints from Negroes and civil rights organizations that there weren't enough Negro officers in the higher levels," Moskowitz said. "We told them it was simply a matter of time and numbers."

Common Pleas Court of Pickaway County disposed of 446 cases during the year 1968, according to the annual report released Friday by Sara Dresbach, clerk of courts.

There were 235 cases carried into 1968 from 1967, according to the court report, and 459 cases were filed during 1968. The court has carried 246 cases from 1968 forward into 1969.

Of the 446 cases disposed of by the court during 1968, 206 were divorce cases, 143 were civil cases and 95, criminal cases.

During the last month of the year the court disposed of 41 cases. Eight of the cases were criminal, 19 civil and 14 were domestic relations cases.

TWO of the criminal cases handled in December were tried by the court and two by jury. The remaining four criminal cases were settled or dismissed. The court tried 10 domestic cases during the last month of the year with the remaining four cases settled or dismissed. Of the civil cases disposed of during the month, nine were tried by the court, five were settled or dismissed and five were cognovit or default judgments.

Presently pending before the court are 107 divorce cases, 85 civil cases and 46 criminal cases which were first filed in 1968.

Jerry and Gary Sopher, both of Route 1, Groveport, were bound to the next term of the Pickaway County Grand Jury by Municipal Court Judge Sterling Lamb Thursday.

The brothers both entered pleas of not guilty to charges of forgery.

Jerry Sopher appeared in court on two counts. He was charged by James Bushman of issuing a forged check in the amount of $110.10 and by George Benson of passing a bogus check for $87.69.

Gary Sopher was accused by Pickaway County Sheriff Dwight Radcliff of passing a check in the amount of $110.08.

Both men have been released by authorities under $3,500 bond each.

action on the nuclear nonproliferation treaty, but that chamber could get bogged down first in the biennial and always controversial move to moderate the filibuster rule that requires a two-thirds vote to limit debate. Even the usually routine canvass of presidential returns could provide a spark or two.

Sen. Edmund Muskie, D-Maine, and Rep. James O'Hara, D-Mich., said they will ask Congress Monday to reject a North Carolina electoral vote cast for third party candidate George C. Wallace and award it to Nixon. Nixon carried North Carolina, but because of the switch got only 12 of the state's 13 votes.

The pair said they wanted to "insure the integrity of this election . . . and to effectively dramatize the danger of continuing to operate under this outmoded, haphazard and undemocratic method of electing a president."

The Powell issue is the thorniest facing the House. Powell has twice been re-elected by his Harlem district since he was denied his seat in the 90th Congress.

Some Republicans are planning to move to seat the New Yorker this time but fine him $40,000, strip him of seniority and censure him. Others said they flatly oppose seating him and it takes only one objection to force a roll call.

Migrant Laborer's Outlook Brightens

By JUDI DANIEL
Associated Press Writer
DALLAS (AP) — Evaristo Sandoval traveled around the nation from one short-lived job to another a year ago, barely eking out an existence for his family.

Today Sandoval worries less about his own security and more about the pilots who fly the planes he inspects.

"The Navy is depending on us," he said. "If the job is not done right a pilot could get killed."

Sandoval was one of many jobless Mexican-Americans in the Lower Rio Grande Valley until a Dallas-based industry took a mobile classroom to him.

The company trained him and others, moved them with their families to Dallas and gave them a new way of life.

And what the labor mobility project did for Ling-Temco-Vought Aerospace Corp. is seen by company officials as highly profitable.

It added 684 skilled workers at a time when the unemployment rate in the Dallas metropolitan area had dropped to below two per cent. Column after column of classified ads begged for people to go to work.

What the project did for the people involved, though, is the real success story.

The plight of the migrant laborer in an increasingly mechanized world suddenly brightened. Now, this group possesses steady jobs.

"It is a better way of life," Alicia DeLeon says of her new job and home. Alicia and her husband, Leon, both work at the plant and recently purchased a new home. They know an independence they never experienced before.

The project was a tremendous one in terms of the human element, said J. B. Andrasko, director of LTV's industrial relations.

He admitted the company had some doubts about attempting to relocate the Mexican-Americans from the valley—a traditionally rural, close-knit and family-oriented people.

Would they be able to cope with city congestion, homesickness for the quiet peaceful valley and longing for parents, sisters, brothers, uncles, aunts and cousins who were part of their daily life?

In all, 2,184 people—men, women and children—became part of the experiment. Two hundred and sixty were school-age children.

"The keys to the success of the program were understanding, excellent counseling and a keen determination on the part of the workers and their families to escape their environment of unemployment, poverty and despair," said Andrasko.

Teamed with federal and state agencies, LTV Aerospace Corp. established three schools in the valley.

The schools began in 1967 and provided five weeks of training for 15 men at a time.

They were trained to be sheet metal assemblers. As they were graduated, the men were given permanent jobs at the Grand Prairie facility between Fort Worth and Dallas.

Of the 750 enrolled, 684 were graduated and relocated.

The corporation expected to lose 40 per cent of the trainees. They lost only 10 per cent and only 2 per cent of those returned to the valley. The others took other jobs in this area.

Three commissioners are not enough to represent the people of a county that now has as many people living outside as inside the city," Held said in an interview.

Held, a Republican who has spent seven years on the Cincinnati City Council, was elected in November to the board of commissioners.

The Business World

By CHARLES C. CAIN (For John Cuniff)

DETROIT (AP) — The auto industry hit the jackpot in 1968 as it sold a record-breaking number of new cars and trucks. More than 9.6 million customers bought new cars in a buying spree that surprised most of Detroit's top auto executives. They saw the old sales high of 1965 topped by about 300,000 cars.

Much of the sales action came on the imported car front as foreign firms grabbed off a surprisingly big chunk of the market—nearly 10 per cent, or 960,000 cars, and sent American car makers scurrying to the drawing boards to come up with smaller cars to meet the overseas threat.

Truck sales also zoomed to a new high of about 1.8 million vehicles, again 300,000 units in front of the old mark set in 1966. U. S. auto firms appeared certain to chalk up their second biggest production year as they set a target of 8,888,366 cars for 1968—second only to the 9,305,516 cars assembled in 1965.

There was no doubt that customers were in a buying mood and that they were going for the big cars, with plenty of options. The strong sales reports upset the predictions of many auto industry leaders who had figured that the federal income surtax, coupled with higher prices for 1969 models, would keep sales at about 9.3 million units.

Even when auto sales showed much strength in late October and early November after the '69s made their bow, some felt the upward curve of sales would slow down by December, but that was not the case.

Henry Ford II, chairman of the board of Ford Motor Co., who had predicted in October that sales would wind up at about 9.5 million, raised the ante a bit at his December 11th annual pre-Christmas news conference and said they would be over 9.6 million.

The continued strength shown by the compact offerings from overseas shattered the old imports sales mark of 766,992 set last year. There was no indication that the demands for the subcompacts would slacken off, and Ford told his news conference he figured the imports would top the million mark in 1969.

American auto companies swung into action in late 1968 to meet the challenge of the imports. They decided to come up with new small cars—smaller than anything now offered by American auto companies—to meet the overseas sales threat.

While there were isolated strikes at Ford Division, Buick and Cadillac plants during 1968, the year was generally one of labor peace, in contrast to the strike-torn days of 1967 when Ford was hit by a nationwide stoppage.

Length and luxury were the big words in the industry's vocabulary as the 1969s hit the showrooms. Two years ago, the so-called personalized cars like the Mustang and Camaro got the big attention; last year, it was the intermediates.

This time around it was the big cars' turn.

Sheldon Leonard Show

By BOB THOMAS
AP Television-Movie Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Television producer Sheldon Leonard pictures himself as a tilter of network windmills, a dreamer of impossible programming dreams. Judging from his past performance, other producers should try the Don Quixote bit.

The latest of the Leonard lances is aimed at the Sunday spot now being vacated by the Phyllis Diller show. Leonard's new series, "My Friend Tony," will be facing the formidable opposition of "Mission: Impossible" and ABC's Sunday night movie starting Jan. 5.

"I think we can make it," he says confidently.

Maybe so. After all, Leonard himself made it from playing gangsters in wide lapels and snap-brim hats to being mentor of a long string of television successes. With each show he had to battle the ossified through patterns of the industry's programmers. He catalogued:

1. The Danny Thomas Show. "I was told that in the heartland of America, viewers would find no identification with a man who told jokes in a night club for a living. I solved that by placing the emphasis on him as a husband and father."
2. The Andy Griffith Show. "Now I was told the reverse: that a rural comedian would not register in urban America. But I had my research department look up the huge sales of records by Eddy Arnold; a large percentage were sold in cities. That proved to me Andy would go over in the urban areas."
3. The Dick Van Dyke Show. "An inside show about television show couldn't possibly interest a mass audience, they told me. In fact, Jim Aubrey, then head of CBS, tried to convince me to change Dick from a comedy writer to an insurance man."
4. The Bill Dana Show. "This time they said I couldn't base a comedy show on a dialect comedian. The series failed—because I had tried to present a fantasy character against a realistic background."
5. "Gomer Pyle." "An audience gravely concerned about the draft and the Vietnam war would not watch a show about soldiers, they argued. I solved that by placing Jim Nabors in a military environment that had nothing to do with fighting a war."
6. "I Spy." "No show with foreign locations had ever succeeded, but I was willing to try." Leonard also pioneered with a Negro co-star, Bill Cosby.

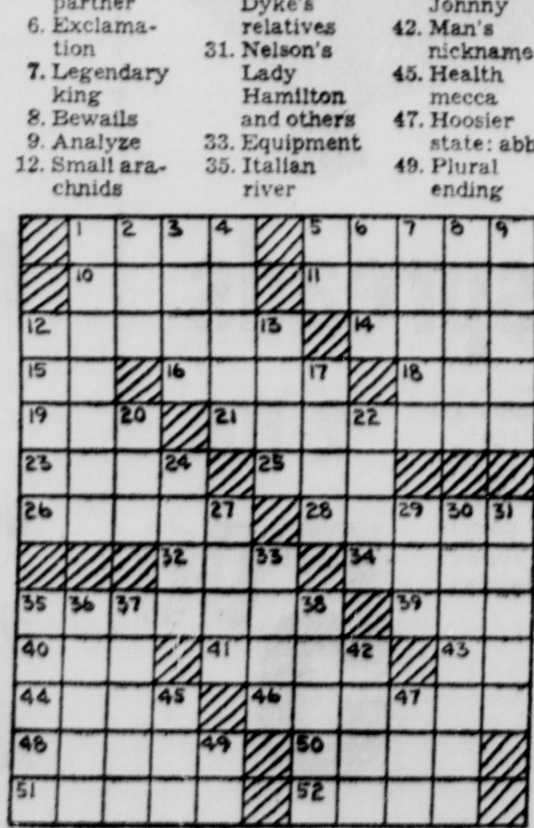

The producer's challenge in "My Friend Tony" seems less profound than those which went before, but he claims it is a real challenge: "No series has ever had a foreign-speaking leading man."

The new star is Enzo Cerusico, a handsome Italian Leonard chose for an "I Spy" segment in Rome.

SECRETARY OF STATE RUSK has a legitimate grievance against TV cameramen. "Have you ever noticed," he complains, "that when a football gladiator is knocked cold in a televised contest, the cameraman considerably pans away and shows another part of the field? But oh, my friends, let a Secretary of State get stung by outraged opponents, and every network rushes to get a close-up of the damage inflicted!"

Herbert Mayes recalls the time that the great American patriot and orator, Patrick Henry, received an angry note from a rival politician named William Giles. "I understand," protested Giles, "that you have called me a bob-tail politician. I wish to know if it be true, and if it is, what in tarnation be your meaning?" To which Patrick Henry replied, "I do not recollect ever calling you a bob-tail politician, but it is altogether probable that I did. If so, I cannot say precisely what I meant—so if you will tell me what YOU think I meant, I'll be happy to tell you whether you're correct or not."

A few children's letters quoted in Bill Adler's "Dear Rabbi":

1. Did you always want to be a rabbi, or did you want to be a 2nd baseman like I do?
2. Is it permissible to wear a mini skirt to Yom Kippur services?
3. Please announce at my bar mitzvah services that I would rather not have money as a gift. P.S. My mother made me write this letter.

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

One of the most complex and difficult specialties in medicine is that of general practice. Too often the truly great accomplishments of the family physician is lost in the shadows of the so-called glamour of the sophisticated specialist.

The affectionate letters, G. P., represent to many, lovely memories of a competent family physician who played an active role in the physical, social, emotional and intellectual problems of one's growing family. Many of these memories seem to merge with the characteristic portrait of the grey bearded, gentle eyed man who traveled the country roads in a modestly elegant horse and buggy. He held the pulse of the severely sick child, giving comfort by his presence to the parents who anxiously surrounded him.

This doctor had to know all the answers to immediate and urgent medical problems. His strength came from his inner security based on years of medical practice and an intuitive judgment about all family problems.

In reality this charming image has become magnified by distances in time. Today, many people believe they are deprived because the general practitioner is no longer available as a bulwark of dependability for the maintenance of the total health of the entire family.

Actually, today's family physician incorporates all of the kindnesses and understanding of the horse and buggy G. P., except that there is now a gigantic expansion of the horizon of his knowledge. The fact that he now travels in an air-conditioned, high-powered convertible in no way modified his stability as the very center of the health of the community he lives in. He is endowed with all of the same qualities of the general physician who practiced at the turn of the century, coupled with the newer knowledge of antibiotics and hormones that changed the methods of modern treatment.

The American Academy of General Practice is a vast organization of more than thirty thousand physicians who are identified with the very special talent of being family doctors. It is they who most frequently are called on to make the most vital decisions about the physical and emotional problems of patients and their families. By their training and skill they truly must be classed as specialists and must be encouraged to stimulate the interests of younger physicians in a specialty that brings mutual knowledge of scientific progress.

The American Academy has established rigid laws which make it imperative for all of their physician members to continue to study and be tested at regular intervals to be certain there is no lapse in their knowledge of scientific progress.

The family physician represents a solid column of support for those whose lives are distorted by emotional stress and psychological problems. They are trained to recognize emotional illness, to extract it from their patients and to identify it with physical complaints. The essence of the healing art of medicine is sympathetic understanding, coupled with the ability to minister to the physical needs of those whose health and destiny are entrusted in him.

As a practicing physician in a medical specialty, I have never ceased to wonder how the general family physician can accumulate so much knowledge and dispense it with accuracy, reliability, warmth and good judgment. Certainly I have at times been disappointed, but then I am not certain that I have not on occasion been disappointed in myself. The general structure of the family physician fits into a modern medical architecture that does not need the memory of a past to support its present vitality.

The art of being a good patient must run parallel with the science of being a good doctor.

The Soviet Hard Line

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

I don't know what special information Richard Nixon may have about the capabilities and intentions of the Soviet Union, but it can't be much better than the material turned up by the Institute for the Study of the USSR in Munich. Every six months this institute makes a comprehensive analysis of the latest Moscow Communist Party Central Committee "Appeals" which are issued on May Day and the anniversary of the October Revolution. Last spring's analysis accurately forecast the intensification of the Soviet hard line in foreign policy that resulted in the violation of Czechoslovakia. And now Herman Achminow's penetrating interpretation of the October, 1968, slogans yields Nixon little hope that the Communist world is about to resume the "liberalization" that was interrupted when Brezhnev and Kossygin called a halt to Khrushchevian de-Stalinization.

The gist of the 1968 October slogans is that the Kremlin leaders think their society can "only be controlled by orthodox means." This means there will be no essential changes in the Soviet brand of Communism inside Russia. It also means that the dogmatic Kremlin Marxists are prepared to do anything it takes to keep the satellite nations in line. Last May's signal to revert to what Mr. Achminow calls "primitive, dogmatic attitudes of the Stalin era" has been repeated, but with a stronger emphasis on the right of the Moscow Communists to suppress, by invasion if necessary, any "liberalizing" tendency in the East European socialist nations that is even suspected of being "bourgeois."

In the October slogans the downgrading of the intellectuals continues. They occupy the low place on the totem pole in the sloganized exhortations to "construct a Communist society." The "working class" is blessed as "the progressive and leading creative force," followed in order by the "collective - farm peasantry." The "people's intelligentsia" is told tardily to do what the Party orders; instead of thinking about new programs, the writers and the professoriate must be content to be "active participants" in whatever the trade union "school of administration and economic management" decrees.

The latest slogans, says Mr. Achminow, ignore the word "reform." "Profitability" is no longer mentioned as a goal for industry save in agriculture. According to Achminow, the Central Committee "no longer deems it expedient to apply the new economic principles in full and has decided to return to the old, well-tried Stalinist methods of political management of the economy." The final section of the October appeals addresses itself to the specifics of foreign policy. As in May, the United States and West Germany are considered the villains in the international picture; they are "arch-enemies of progress." The allusion to Czechoslovakia is plain in a new slogan: "Working people of the socialist countries! Be vigilant toward the schemes of forces hostile to socialism!" There is also a freshly-worded appeal to the Communist armed forces, who must be "vigilant and always ready to ward off any aggression of the imperialists."

In no fewer than eleven of the fifty-five October slogans the peoples of the socialist bloc are told to fall in line with orthodox Marxist-Leninist construction, making no concessions to "liberalization." This is the Moscow line, which is presumably good until the new slogans are revealed next May.

What does it all portend for Nixon's hoped-for "era of negotiation"? It doesn't mean that the Soviets won't be willing to talk. They may even agree to atomic limitation treaties and to partial "detente." But if they are willing to agree to anything, it will be because they consider they are getting more out of it than we are. Nixon had better beware of sending boy negotiators to do a man's job in any coming talk fest with Communist envoys who have been told to adhere to the "dogmatic attitudes of the Stalinist era."

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir:

What is wrong with this world today? What are the young people doing with their spare time? Do you help them by doing things with them? Do you do things as a family or do you have a baby sitter do that for you? Are you a closely knit family where your children come first, not just the little ones but the youth also?

Youth are our leaders of tomorrow. How are we as parents helping them? After all, they look to us for guidance. Have we done our own part in helping them or have we hindered them? Do we turn our back when they have problems and come to us as parents? Just how little have we done? How do your children actually feel about you? Do you know where your children are at all times? Have you trained your child properly, teaching him the Ten Commandments, showing him of your keeping them and what is expected out of him? Do you get respect from your children? Do you do things they will respect you for? Have you taught your children to steal, lie, take the Lord's name in vain, mistreat other people, or destroy property? Are you yourself leading a respectful life, one which you are not ashamed of? Do you do as the Golden Rule states "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you?"

The above questions were some of the questions presented on a television program recently. It would do each and everyone of good to sit down and search our own minds and hearts to the above questions. In the past few weeks, the newspaper has had article upon article about thefts in this community.

Our police and sheriff departments can not be everywhere all the time. You hear so many people say why can't the police catch them all? I think it is our duty as citizens to search the above questions and do our part to try to stop all these thefts. After all, training does begin at home.

The way the Christmas decorations have been stolen this year, I wouldn't blame anyone if there wasn't an outside decoration put up at all next year. Someone borrowed several strands of lights, flood lights, bulbs off strands that they couldn't remove quickly, and several incandescent bulbs on two different nights. Would that person or persons like the boxes to store them in?

What does it all portend for Nixon's hoped-for "era of negotiation"? It doesn't mean that the Soviets won't be willing to talk. They may even agree to atomic limitation treaties and to partial "detente." But if they are willing to agree to anything, it will be because they consider they are getting more out of it than we are. Nixon had better beware of sending boy negotiators to do a man's job in any coming talk fest with Communist envoys who have been told to adhere to the "dogmatic attitudes of the Stalinist era."

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir:

What is wrong with this world today? What are the young people doing with their spare time? Do you help them by doing things with them? Do you do things as a family or do you have a baby sitter do that for you? Are you a closely knit family where your children come first, not just the little ones but the youth also?

Youth are our leaders of tomorrow. How are we as parents helping them? After all, they look to us for guidance. Have we done our own part in helping them or have we hindered them? Do we turn our back when they have problems and come to us as parents? Just how little have we done? How do your children actually feel about you? Do you know where your children are at all times? Have you trained your child properly, teaching him the Ten Commandments, showing him of your keeping them and what is expected of him? Do you get respect from your children? Do you do things they will respect you for? Have you taught your children to steal, lie, take the Lord's name in vain, mistreat other people, or destroy property? Are you yourself leading a respectful life, one which you are not ashamed of? Do you do as the Golden Rule states "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you?"

The above questions were some of the questions presented on a television program recently. It would do each and everyone of good to sit down and search our own minds and hearts to the above questions. In the past few weeks, the newspaper has had article upon article about thefts in this community.

Our police and sheriff departments can not be everywhere all the time. You hear so many people say why can't the police catch them all? I think it is our duty as citizens to search the above questions and do our part to try to stop all these thefts. After all, training does begin at home.

The way the Christmas decorations have been stolen this year, I wouldn't blame anyone if there wasn't an outside decoration put up at all next year. Someone borrowed several strands of lights, flood lights, bulbs off strands that they couldn't remove quickly, and several incandescent bulbs on two different nights. Would that person or persons like the boxes to store them in?

Sheldon Leonard Show

By BOB THOMAS

AP Television-Movie Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Television producer Sheldon Leonard pictures himself as a tilter of network windmills, a dreamer of impossible programming dreams. Judging from his past performance, other producers should try the Don Quixote bit.

The latest of the Leonard lances is aimed at the Sunday spot now being vacated by the Phyllis Diller show. Leonard's new series, "My Friend Tony," will be facing the formidable opposition of "Mission: Impossible" and ABC's Sunday night movie starting Jan. 5.

"I think we can make it," he says confidently.

Maybe so. After all, Leonard himself made it from playing gangsters in wide lapels and snap-brim hats to being mentor of a long string of television successes. With each show he had to battle the ossified through patterns of the industry's programmers. He catalogued:

1. The Danny Thomas Show. "I was told that in the heartland of America, viewers would find no identification with a man who told jokes in a night club for a living. I solved that by placing the emphasis on him as a husband and father."

2. The Andy Griffith Show. "Now I was told the reverse: that a rural comedian would not register in urban America. But I had my research department look up the huge sales of records by Eddy Arnold; a large percentage were sold in cities. That proved to me Andy would go over in the urban areas."

3. The Dick Van Dyke Show. "An inside show about television show couldn't possibly interest a mass audience, they told me. In fact, Jim Aubrey, then head of CBS, tried to convince me to change Dick from a comedy writer to an insurance man."

4. The Bill Dana Show. "This time they said I couldn't base a comedy show on a dialect comedian. The series failed—because I had tried to present a fantasy character against a realistic background."

5. "Gomer Pyle." "An audience gravely concerned about the draft and the Vietnam war would not watch a show about soldiers, they argued. I solved that by placing Jim Nabors in a military environment that had nothing to do with fighting a war."

6. "I Spy." "No show with foreign locations had ever succeeded, but I was willing to try." Leonard also pioneered with a Negro co-star, Bill Cosby.

The producer's challenge in "My Friend Tony" seems less profound than those which went before, but he claims it is a real challenge: "No series has ever had a foreign-speaking leading man."

The new star is Enzo Cerusico, a handsome Italian Leonard chose for an "I Spy" segment in Rome.

Fortas Appointment As Chief Justice Doomed From Start

EDITOR'S NOTE—Following is the ninth of 12 articles on The Year That Was—a review of events that made 1968 a unique news year.

By JOY STILLEY
Associated Press Writer

From the beginning the confirmation of Associate Justice Abe Fortas as chief justice of the United States looked doubtful. When the nomination reached the Senate floor late in September the development of a filibuster made failure even more apparent.

Chief Justice Earl Warren had resigned in July, conditional on the confirmation of Fortas, whom President Johnson nominated as his successor to the Supreme Court. Federal Judge Homer Thornberry was in line for Fortas' post as associate justice.

In stormy hearings of the Senate Judiciary Committee, opposition to Fortas centered on charges that his rulings were too liberal on such issues as obscenity and defendants' rights and that he had played an advisory role to President Johnson. And there was the disclosure that he was paid $15,000 the previous summer for teaching a nine-week seminar course at American University.

When an attempt to halt the Senate filibuster failed to achieve the necessary two-thirds margin, Fortas asked Johnson to withdraw his name, declaring his desire to end the destructive and extreme assaults upon the Court.

In a maximum security setting in an Oakland, Calif., courthouse, September saw the completion of the trial of Black Panther leader Huey Newton on charges of killing a white policeman, John Frey, 23, and critically wounding another officer, Herbert Heanes, 25.

The two patrolmen had stopped the car Newton was driving on Oct. 28, 1967. Moments later Frey sprawled on the street, bleeding to death from five bullet wounds. Newton was arrested when he appeared at a hospital with a bullet wound in his stomach.

Heanes, who was wounded three times, later testified that he had fired that shot after he was felled by bullets that came "from the direction of Newton," though he could not recall actually seeing a gun in Newton's hand. The Negro driver of a passing municipal bus in predominantly Negro West Oakland, where the shooting took place testified that he did see Newton draw a gun and keep firing it at Frey until the officer's body jerked, then was still.

No gun belonging to Newton was found, nor was Frey's weapon. Testified the 26-year-old defendant: "I didn't shoot anyone; I have never shot anyone."

The eight-week trial, during which admission was after careful identification only, produced charges of racial discrimination. After deliberating four days the jury, with its only Negro member as foreman, convicted Newton of voluntary manslaughter but acquitted him on the second count of assault with a deadly weapon.

On Sept. 25 the reign of Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar, who had ruled Portugal with an iron hand for four decades, came to an end. The 79-year-old durable dictator had suffered a head injury in a fall and then a stroke.

Salazar's tenure, the longest of any political leader in this century, was ended by a decree from President Americo Thomaz. Named to succeed him was a right-wing law professor, 62-year old Marcello Caetano, a far more outgoing man than his predecessor.

The new prime minister was expected to give Portugal her first liberal reforms since Salazar became prime minister in 1932.

presents "a lot of trouble." Besides, what's the sense of my sending her a check for $25 and her sending me the same? How do you feel about it? I should add, this relative needs more money like I need another belly button.

BEWILDERED IN BOSTON
DEAR BEWILDERED: I agree with you. Tell her to just blow you a kiss at Christmas, and you'll do the same for her.

DEAR ABBY: I really dig this guy I'll call Phil. My father checked up on him and now he won't let me go out with him. He is a musician. He plays the drums. My father says that a drummer is no musician — that a person who plays the violin or piano can call himself a musician, but a drum is no instrument. Is that right?

Also, my father found out that Phil is 32, not 26, like he said he was.

I have two questions to ask. (1) Is a drummer a musician (2) As long as a guy is a gentleman, don't you think I should be allowed to go out with him? I am 19, but am very mature for my age. Thank you.

DIGS PHIL
DEAR DIGS: Yes, a drummer is indeed a musician, but what's all this jazz about his lying about his age? Sorry but I agree with your father. A 32-year-old drummer should beat it if he can't play it straight with a 19-year-old girl.

Paper-Signing Wife Should See Lawyer

DEAR ABBY: Before I married my husband he asked me to sign some papers saying I was not to share in any of his worldly possession during his lifetime, and would not be entitled to anything should he die. He signed the major part of his property and assets over to a lady friend.

In his defense, I should mention that he has never been married before, and he is my third husband, so maybe he is just playing it safe. I married the first time at 15, and that didn't work out. My second husband was an alcoholic, and that ended in divorce, too. Do you think he really loves me, or is he taking me for a fool.

WONDERING
DEAR WONDERING: Regardless of what you signed, see your own lawyer and find out how binding it is. A man who would ask his wife to disclaim all his worldly possessions during his lifetime, and would leave her unprotected for should he precede her in death, doesn't sound like much of a bargain to me, especially after having signed over the lion's share of his assets to a "lady friend." (P.S. If you ever find out why this man felt he needed a wife, let me know.)

DEAR ABBY: The following is from a letter I recently received from an out-of-state relative:

"Let's make a deal. Next year instead of sending each other Christmas presents, send me a check, and I will do the same for you. It will save us both a lot of trouble.

Miss Louise Marshall Bride Of Paul Saunders

MRS. PAUL ROBERT SAUNDERS

Miss Louise Marshall and Paul Robert Saunders exchanged wedding vows Saturday, Nov. 16, in the Circleville First Baptist Church. The Rev. Joe P. Weldon performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Ralph Payne, was attired in a floor length gown of silk peau de soie. The bodice was fashioned with a natural waistline topped with a scooped neckline trimmed in iridescent sequins and pearls. The full length trumpet sleeves were accented with lace and a wattleau train flowed chapel length from the waist. Her silk illusion three tiered bouffant veil was held in place by a matching peau de soie pill box trimmed with lace, iridescent sequins and pearls. She carried a bouquet of yellow sweetheart roses and white pompons with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Michael Hatfield was matron of honor for her sister, Mrs. Donald Bianchi, sister of the groom, of Philadelphia, and Miss Bonnie Moody of Circleville were bridesmaids. The attendants wore empire styled gowns of emerald green and turquoise brocade with full length trumpet sleeves. Each attendant carried a single long stemmed yellow rose.

Miss Tammy Hatfield, niece of the bride was flower girl and Greg Hatfield, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Vernon E. Saunders, father of the groom, served as best man. Seating the guests were Donald Bianchi, brother-in-law of the groom and William Vaughn, a cousin of the groom.

Mrs. Ralph Payne, sister of the bride, wore a turquoise peau de soie gown with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses. Mrs.

Vernon E. Saunders, mother of the groom, wore a lime green silk shantung dress with matching coat and a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Jerry Medert, organist, presented a half-hour of pre-nuptial music. Hal Spencer, vocalist, sang "Whither Thou goest," "Through the Years" and "The Wedding Prayer."

A reception in the Service Center of Good Shepherd United Methodist Church followed the ceremony. A four-tiered wedding cake encircled with yellow mums centered the bride's table. Hostesses were Mrs. Robert Weaver, sister of the bride; Mrs. Robert West, Mrs. Gary Thompson, Mrs. Don Kempton and Miss Jane Van Dyke. Mrs. William Vaughn presided at the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of Walnut Twp. High School, attended Ohio University in Chillicothe, and is employed as a purchasing clerk at the local DuPont Company. The groom is a graduate of Circleville High School and Franklin University, Columbus, where he received an associate degree in business. He also received a commercial pilot license from Saint Aviation Technical School, St. Petersburg, Fla., and has his instrument rating from Lane Aviation, Technical School, Columbus. He served two years with the Air Force in Labrador and two years at Kinchloe AFB in Michigan. He is presently employed with American Photocopy Equipment Co., Columbus.

The couple will reside in Circleville.

For a delicious vegetable dish, team cooked brussels sprouts with white sauce and roasted chestnuts.

Auxiliary Holds Dinner

A carry-in dinner preceded the business session at the recent meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary in the Post Home.

Mrs. Donna Hall stated that she had sent 22 Christmas cards to Pickaway County men who are serving in Vietnam. Mrs. Bess Simson reported that 35 Veterans Administration Hospital patients in Chillicothe were entertained at the Christmas party for ward 211-C. The auxiliary also presented an electric razor for the patients to use.

President, Lucille Pickel, draped the auxiliary charter in memory of a deceased member, Mrs. Oneida Kelzach.

Kenwood Youths Photography Flubs

CINCINNATI (AP) — Three youths from suburban Kenwood have run into a slight stumbling block in trying to photograph Kenwood by air.

Their 10-foot balloon, filled with helium and transporting an eight millimeter camera, broke a 1,000-foot line attached to it and drifted off Thursday.

But the experimenters, Robert Seifert, 15; Bob Carter, 14, and Greg Seifert, 13, were successful earlier in a similar attempt.

No Major Changes Seen As New Fashions Come Out

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The first of the spring fashions came in like a lamb, not like a lion, and women who want something new and different might well wish for a little more roar on the racks.

By the end of the first full day of the New York Couture Group showing Thursday, the 200 fashion reporters who gathered in a Manhattan hotel for previews of next season's styles had seen little in the way of change.

The one message that all the ready-to-wear designers and manufacturers—whose collections ranged from a low of about $30 to a high of about $700—got across was the upcoming popularity of pleats.

There were tiny knife pleats on swirling skirts, short and long; side panel pleats to give skirts a smooth line and free moving fit; and even inverted back pleats topped by half belts.

Marie McCarthy, designing for the firm of Larry Aldrich, opened the afternoon session with a series of short and swiny dresses, many featuring either snug inset midriffs or belts.

"There is no one dominant fashion silhouette," said Aldrich in introducing the collection, adding that he was offered a variety of choices for a variety of women.

Most of the difference in the clothes came in detail, not basic shape, however. One dress was gathered with a sash, another with a belt. One had a side closing, another a front closing.

Among the highlights were a black and white silk dress with knife-pleated skirt topped by a stretched-out sleeveless orange overblouse, a red, blue, green and white paisley pants and tunic combination with a deeply plunging neck and a black silk faille dinner dress styled like an artist's smock—full with huge bow and low patch pockets.

Prices of the Aldrich collection ranged from about $175 to $500.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Anderson, Route 1, Mt. Sterling, have returned to their home after spending five weeks in Orlando, Fla. They visited with their son and family, Tech. Sgt. and Mrs. Shirley Anderson and two sons. Sgt. Anderson is stationed at McCoy Air Force Base.

Firemen Too Late To Save Town

MOUNTAIN SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — The firemen arrived too late to save the gasoline station, cafe, general store, an adjoining house, a house trailer and four cars. But then they had to travel 120 miles.

Since there is little water in this Mojave Desert community, Bob Schepe and Paul Wearing of the Yucca Valley unit of the state Division of Forestry were called. It took them two hours Wednesday, driving a pumper wagon loaded to the brim with 500 gallons of water.

They saved a second house trailer and a garage.

McCulloch Named Head Of Delegation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. William McCulloch was elected Thursday as chairman of the Ohio Republican delegation in the U.S. House of Representatives.

The delegation is composed of Ohio's 18 Republican members of the House. It meets twice a month while Congress is in session to discuss current matters and their impact on the Buckeye State.

Other officers elected were William Ayres of Akron as vice chairman, Clarence Miller of Lancaster as secretary and William Stanton of Painesville as treasurer.

Miss Louise Marshall Bride Of Paul Saunders

MRS. PAUL ROBERT SAUNDERS

Miss Louise Marshall and Paul Robert Saunders exchanged wedding vows Saturday, Nov. 16, in the Circleville First Baptist Church. The Rev. Joe P. Weldon performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Ralph Payne, was attired in a floor length gown of silk peau de soie. The bodice was fashioned with a natural waistline topped with a scooped neckline trimmed in iridescent sequins and pearls. The full length trumpet sleeves were accented with lace and a wattle train flowed chapel length from the waist. Her silk illusion three tiered bouffant veil was held in place by a matching peau de soie pill box trimmed with lace, iridescent sequins and pearls. She carried a bouquet of yellow sweetheart roses and white pompons with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Michael Hatfield was matron of honor for her sister, Mrs. Donald Bianchi, sister of the groom, of Philadelphia, and Miss Bonnie Moody of Circleville were bridesmaids. The attendants wore empire styled gowns of emerald green and turquoise brocade with full length trumpet sleeves. Each attendant carried a single long stemmed yellow rose.

Miss Tammy Hatfield, niece of the bride was flower girl and Greg Hatfield, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Vernon E. Saunders, father of the groom, served as best man. Seating the guests were Donald Bianchi, brother-in-law of the groom and William Vaughn, a cousin of the groom.

Mrs. Ralph Payne, sister of the bride, wore a turquoise peau de soie gown with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses. Mrs.

Vernon E. Saunders, mother of the groom, wore a lime green silk shantung dress with matching coat and a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Jerry Medert, organist, presented a half-hour of pre-nuptial music. Hal Spencer, vocalist, sang "Whither Thou goest," "Through the Years" and "The Wedding Prayer."

A reception in the Service Center of Good Shepherd United Methodist Church followed the ceremony. A four-tiered wedding cake encircled with yellow mums centered the bride's table. Hostesses were Mrs. Robert Weaver, sister of the bride; Mrs. Robert West, Mrs. Gary Thompson, Mrs. Don Kempton and Miss Jane Van Dyke. Mrs. William Vaughn presided at the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of Walnut Twp. High School, attended Ohio University in Chillicothe, and is employed as a purchasing clerk at the local DuPont Company. The groom is a graduate of Circleville High School and Franklin University, Columbus, where he received an associate degree in business. He also received a commercial pilot license from Saint Aviation Technical School, St. Petersburg, Fla., and has his instrument rating from Lane Aviation, Technical School, Columbus. He served two years with the Air Force in Labrador and two years at Kinchloe AFB in Michigan. He is presently employed with American Photocopy Equipment Co., Columbus.

The couple will reside in Circleville.

For a delicious vegetable dish, team cooked brussels sprouts with white sauce and roasted chestnuts.

Auxiliary Holds Dinner

A carry-in dinner preceded the business session at the recent meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary in the Post Home.

Mrs. Donna Hall stated that she had sent 22 Christmas cards to Pickaway County men who are serving in Vietnam. Mrs. Bess Simson reported that 35 Veterans Administration Hospital patients in Chillicothe were entertained at the Christmas party for ward 211-C. The auxiliary also presented an electric razor for the patients to use.

President, Lucille Pickel, draped the auxiliary charter in memory of a deceased member, Mrs. Oneida Kelzsch.

Kenwood Youths Photography Flubs

CINCINNATI (AP) — Three youths from suburban Kenwood have run into a slight stumbling block in trying to photograph Kenwood by air.

Their 10-foot balloon, filled with helium and transporting an eight millimeter camera, broke a 1,000-foot line attached to it and drifted off Thursday.

But the experimenters, Robert Seifert, 15; Bob Carter, 14, and Greg Seifert, 13, were successful earlier in a similar attempt.

No Major Changes Seen As New Fashions Come Out

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The first of the spring fashions came in like a lamb, not like a lion, and women who want something new and different might well wish for a little more roar on the racks.

By the end of the first full day of the New York Couture Group showing Thursday, the 200 fashion reporters who gathered in a Manhattan hotel for previews of next season's styles had seen little in the way of change.

The one message that all the ready-to-wear designers and manufacturers—whose collections ranged from a low of about $30 to a high of about $700—got across was the upcoming popularity of pleats.

There were tiny knife pleats on swirling skirts, short and long; side panel pleats to give skirts a smooth line and free moving fit; and even inverted back pleats topped by half belts. Marie McCarthy, designing for the firm of Larry Aldrich, opened the afternoon session with a series of short and swingy dresses, many featuring either snug inset midriffs or belts. "There is no one dominant fashion silhouette," said Aldrich in introducing the collection, adding that he was offered a variety of choices for a variety of women.

Most of the difference in the clothes came in detail, not basic shape, however. One dress was gathered with a sash, another with a belt. One had a side closing, another a front closing.

Among the highlights were a black and white silk dress with knife-pleated skirt topped by a stretched-out sleeveless orange overblouse, a red, blue, green and white paisley pants and tunic combination with a deeply plunging neck and a black silk faille dinner dress styled like an artist's smock—full with huge bow and low patch pockets.

Pieces of the Aldrich collection ranged from about $175 to $500.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Anderson, Route 1, Mt. Sterling, have returned to their home after spending five weeks in Orlando, Fla. They visited with their son and family. Tech. Sgt. and Mrs. Shirley Anderson and two sons, Sgt. Anderson is stationed at McCoy Air Force Base.

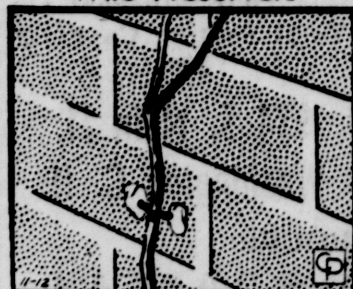

Mr. and Mrs. Blenn Cook and daughter, Kristan Leigh, of North Olmsted, will spend the coming weekend with Mr. Cook's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Cook, Route 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hott of Robtown, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Koch of Ashville, have returned from a 12 day vacation in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence England, 132 Logan St. were hosts at a Christmas dinner for their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur England, 807 S. Pickaway St., and Mr. and Mrs. McClelland Clark, 410 Fay Ave.

Christmas evening visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. McClelland Clark, 410 Fay Ave., were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Young, Bill, Jan Ellen and Beth Ann of Amanda; and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence England, 132 Logan St. Jan Ellen and Beth Ann spent the holiday week in the Clark home. Mrs. Clark returned with them to their home where she spent New Year's Day.

Firemen Too Late To Save Town

MOUNTAIN SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — The firemen arrived too late to save the gasoline station, cafe, general store, an adjoining house, a house trailer and four cars. But then they had to travel 120 miles.

Since there is little water in this Mojave Desert community, Bob Schepe and Paul Wearing of the Yucca Valley unit of the state Division of Forestry were called. It took them two hours Wednesday, driving a pumper wagon loaded to the brim with 500 gallons of water.

They saved a second house trailer and a garage.

McCulloch Named Head Of Delegation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. William McCulloch was elected Thursday as chairman of the Ohio Republican delegation in the U.S. House of Representatives.

The delegation is composed of Ohio's 18 Republican members of the House. It meets twice a month while Congress is in session to discuss current matters and their impact on the Buckeye State.

Other officers elected were William Ayres of Akron as vice chairman, Clarence Miller of Lancaster as secretary and William Stanton of Painesville as treasurer.

Subsidy-Imposed Inequities
In Ohio's Universities Hit

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Finance Director Howard L. Collier charged Thursday that Ohio's state universities are making a profit from out-of-state students at the expense of Ohio students.

A review of enrollment figures, he said, has disclosed what he called "a serious incentive factor in favor of nonresident students that needs to be corrected."

Collier said he intends to present the matter to the Ohio General Assembly.

"Our present subsidy formula encourages our state universities to enroll more out-of-state students," he said. "These institutions receive the same amount of state subsidy per student for the out-of-state student as they do for an Ohio resident, but they often collect twice as much from out-of-state students in fees."

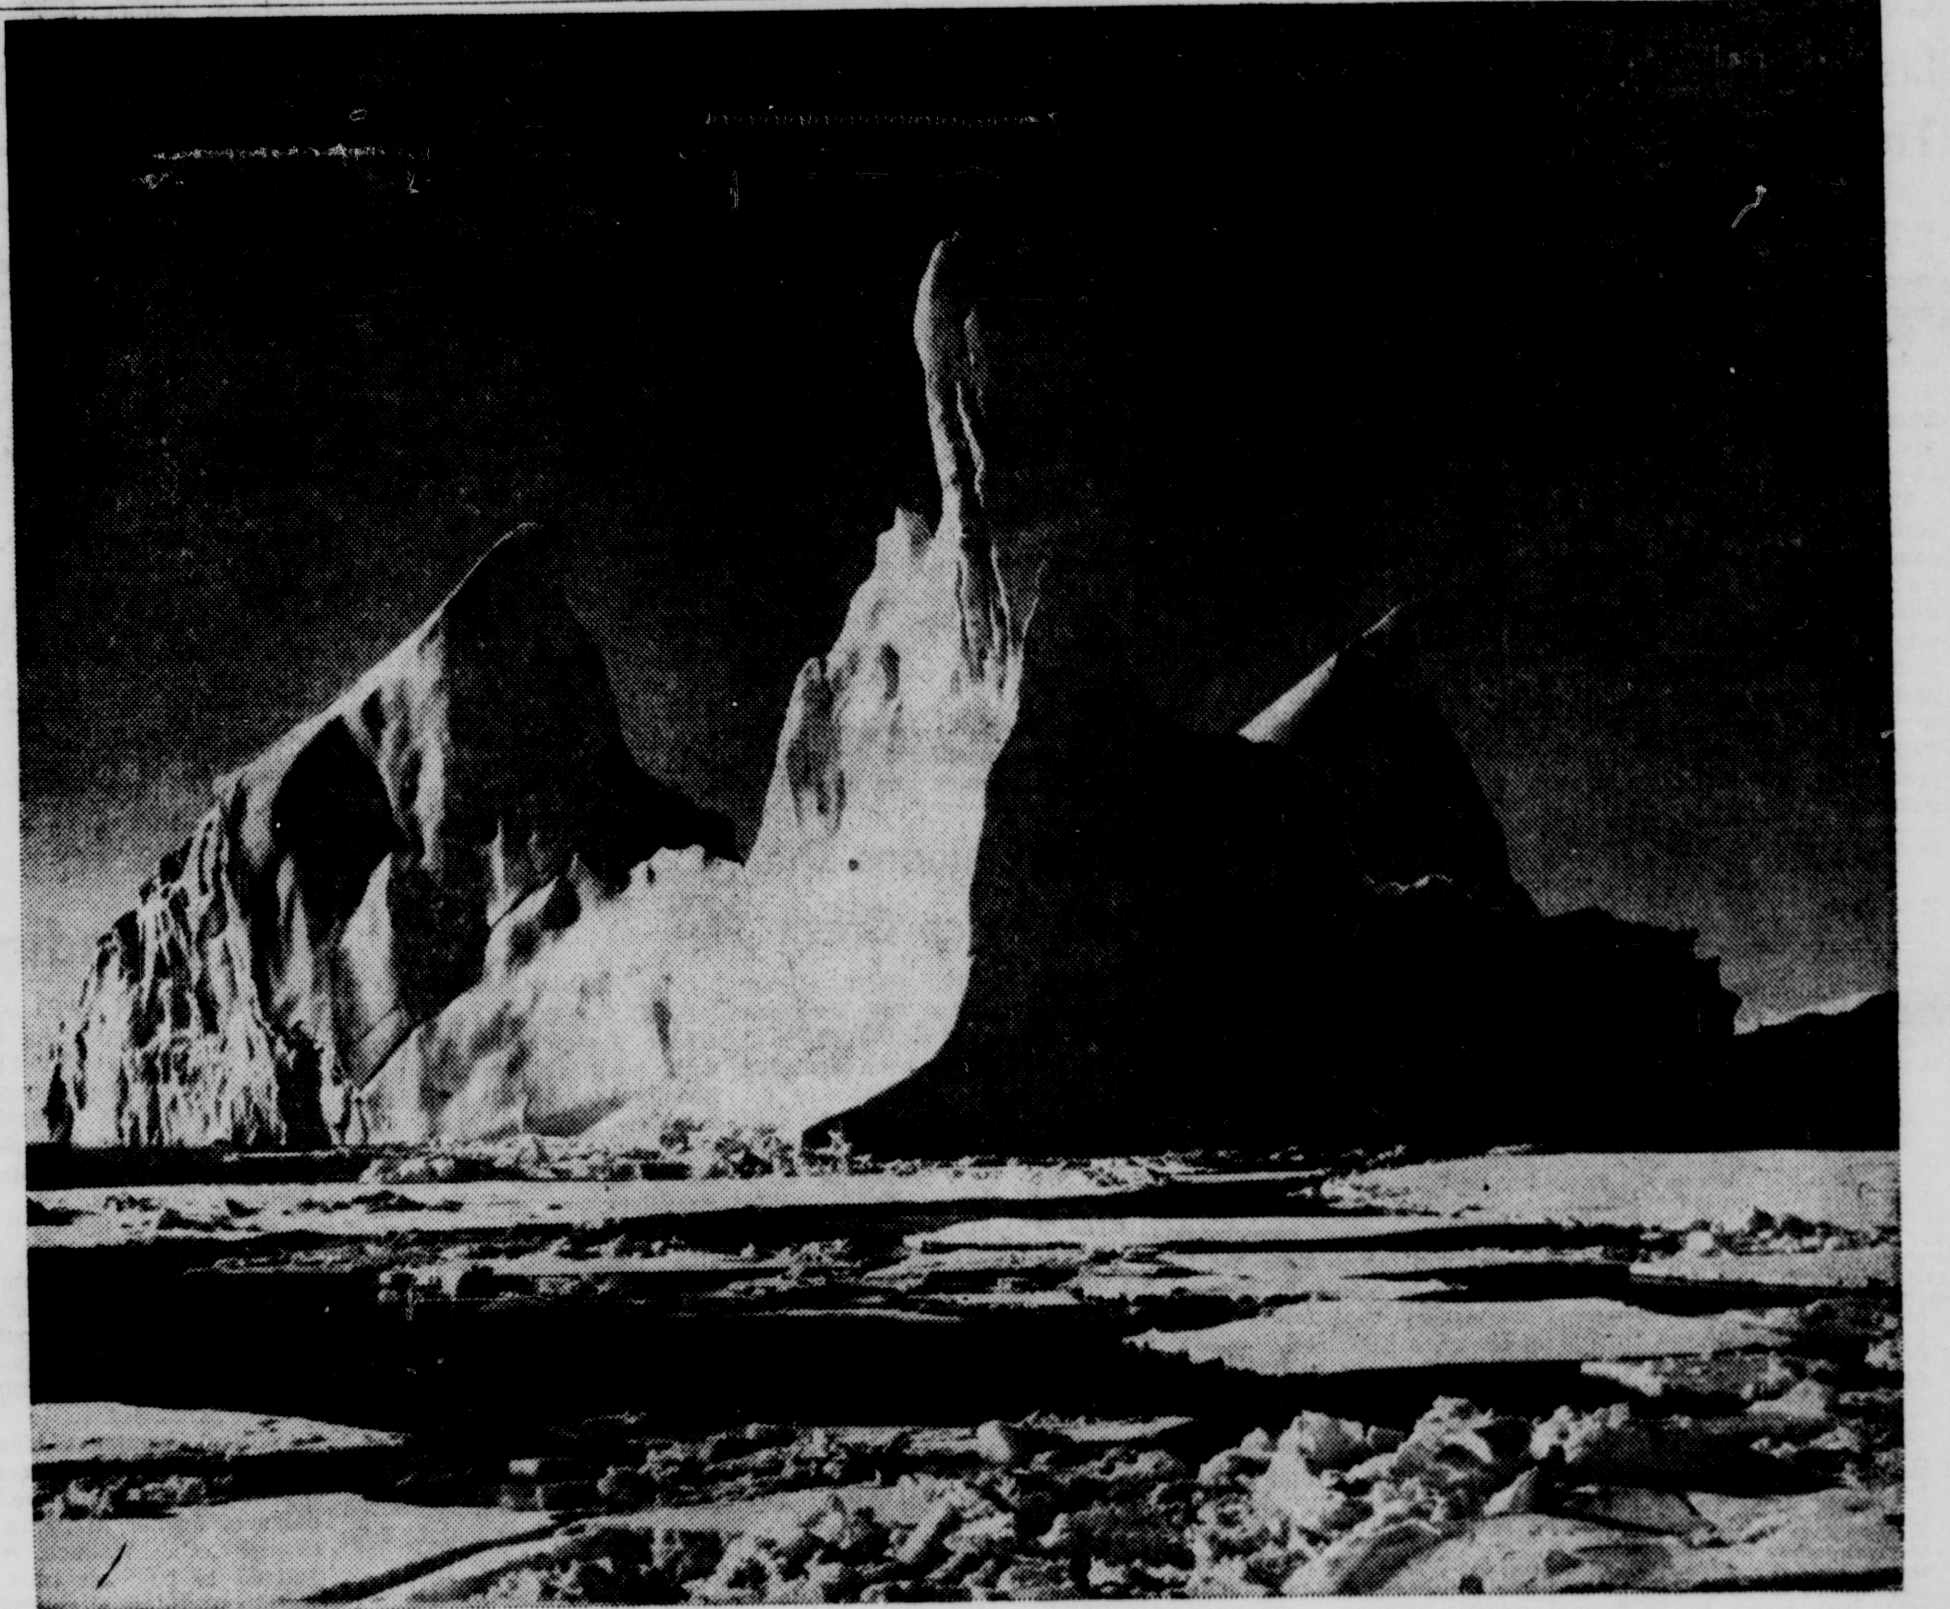

"Under this formula, the more out-of-state students that an institution enrolls, the better is its income situation. This gives our universities a financial incentive to seek out-of-state students rather than Ohio students," Collier said.

"To make this situation worse, some of our campuses are critically crowded. It has been necessary to put on enrollment ceilings, stopping entrance applications from Ohio students — and yet we have no effective ceiling on out-of-state enrollment."

"This situation is totally unfair to the Ohio taxpayers who have paid for the building of our Ohio universities. This is a serious situation that must be corrected — and quickly."

Columbus Education Association To Meet
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Members of the Columbus Education Association plan to meet at 6 a. m. Monday to consider a proposed negotiations agreement which is scheduled to be acted upon that evening by the Board of Education.

The CEA has voiced opposition to the proposal because the school board prepared it without consulting teacher representatives and because it covers only teachers and not principals, nurses and other professional personnel.

Too close for comfort

Here's a photograph taken from a kayak. You don't bring a ship this close to an iceberg! For underwater the tentacles of this cruel, cold monster may reach out a mile or more.

Life for some folks is a succession of narrow escapes. But these are adventures we can do without. They don't prove us bold sailors. They simply prove us poor navigators.

Frightened men sometimes turn to religion as a refuge when dangers—moral, spiritual and physical—loom too close for comfort. God does not fail us in crisis.

But the every-day function of faith is to pilot men on a true course through the sea of life. The Church cannot sweep away icebergs. It warns us of their whereabouts and helps us give them a wide berth.

Church Attention Swings Toward Poor

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was in prison and you came to me."

described in Matthew 25, suffering all these miseries?" His identity is the strange "paradox which is Christianity," says the Rev. Peter J. Riga, a Catholic theologian of St. Mary's College in California. "The poor man is Christ. And the Christian who fails to see this will never see Christ."

As he himself put it, people's response to him is synonymous with their conduct toward the world's needy. "Truly, I say to you," he said, "as you did it to one of the least of these, my brethren, you did it to me."

That is considered the kernel of active regard for Jesus. And today, after two millennia of the faith, the churches are intensifying their concentration on that point, in ways and to an extent unmatched before.

"The major development of 1968 was the deepening involvement of the churches at places of human suffering," says the Rev. Dr. Eugene L. Smith, head of the New York office of the World Council of Churches, in a year-end summary.

The mounting operations on this front are adding a new dimension to the old-style practices of individual charity by moving toward allaying the conditions that keep masses in destitution and despair.

"Charity, though always good, is not enough," says the Rev. Dr. E. T. Carson Blake, the World Council's administrative executive. He says the new approach, stressing that every hungry person is the responsibility of all persons, seeks to bolster just and humane social structures.

It has drawn Protestant, Orthodox, Catholic and often Jewish forces into more powerful alliances of action. It has become the main front of "sharp growth in Christian unity," Dr. Smith says.

Citing many signs of this "intensification of the churches' attempt to make the gospel incarnate at the points of human need," he said the chief thrust is to refocus "personal ethics" toward mitigating the modern world's "vast impersonal problems of poverty."

Organizationally, the hub of it is the newly-established joint Roman Catholic-World Council Committee on Society, Development and Peace, headed by a Jesuit, the Rev. George H. Dunne, at the Council's headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland.

Functionally, however, the trend has proliferated throughout this country and abroad in scores of new interdenominational projects to strengthen economically-deprived races and communities and to use church financial pressure in their behalf.

But the stepped-up religious efforts in this direction also produced resistance and controversy, including protests from groups opposing church involvement in social issues.

"Ever since Jesus scared the life out of a rich young ruler by telling him to sell all he had and give the proceeds to the poor, Christians have been ill at ease about property—and for good reason," says the Rev. Dr. Harvey Cox, of Harvard Divinity School.

He says money and property have tended to hold "the church in captivity," but attempts now were being made to break out of that mold.

Biblical passages are "very blunt" about this, Father Riga writes in the Catholic World. "A Christian who has wealth must use it in the service of his brothers who are poor" or stand condemned by "many of the gospel texts."

How Weather Looks Today

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Weather bureau summary for Ohio:

A return to very cold weather is scheduled for tonight and Saturday, with cold conditions continuing into the first part of next week. An arctic cold front was over extreme Northwest Ohio this morning and moving southeastward across the state.

A high pressure building in the Dakotas will give cold northwesterly winds across Ohio tonight and Saturday.

Early this morning seasonable temperatures prevailed with readings in the 20s under cloudy skies. A little light snow will accompany the cold front as it moves along and snow flurries will develop tonight mostly in the east and north portions of the state.

Low temperatures for tonight will range between zero and 15 above while high readings Saturday will be between 10 and 20.

FORECASTS

OHIO — Windy and much colder tonight and Saturday with scattered snow flurries. Locally heavy snow squalls developing tonight near Lake Erie. Low tonight zero to 10 above northwest and 5 to 15 elsewhere.

NORTHWEST OHIO — Variable cloudiness, windy and much colder tonight and Saturday with snow flurries. Low tonight zero to 10 above. High Saturday 10-15.

SOUTHWEST, SOUTHEAST, CENTRAL, EAST CENTRAL OHIO — Variable cloudiness, windy and much colder tonight and Saturday with scattered snow flurries. Low tonight 5-15. High Saturday 10-20.

OHIO FIVE-DAY FORECAST
The temperatures Saturday through Wednesday will average much below normal with highs in the teens and low 20s and lows 5 to 10 above. Colder Saturday, continuing very cold through Wednesday. Precipitation melted averaging around one-quarter inch south and west to one-half to three-quarters of an inch northeast occurring as snow over the state Saturday. Frequent periods of snow flurries and snow squalls northeast through Wednesday.

Two Ohioans Die In Mexico Crash

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Four Americans killed Tuesday when their car was forced off the road to Acapulco have been identified by the U.S. Embassy.

An embassy spokesman said they were Henry C. Hillmer and his wife Ruth Anne of New Hartford, Iowa, Mrs. Lucille Ryne of Dayton, Ohio, and Mrs. Marion Glaser of Xenia, Ohio.

The car in which they were riding plunged down a 90-foot embankment after leaving the road to avoid colliding with a car that was passing an oncoming truck, authorities said.

Damage Suits Are Settled

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Damage suits resulting from 1964 traffic accidents and totaling more than $400,000 were settled Thursday as a U.S. District Court jury deliberated the cases.

The settlement, between The Ford Motor Co. and the executors of the estates of Dr. Hildegund Nowara of Canton and her son Christopher, came after a three-week trial.

It was part of the agreement that the terms of the settlement would not be made public.

Pup To Get Open-Heart Operation

NEW YORK (AP) — The surgeon who directed a heart and kidney transplant on New Year's Eve has agreed to perform open-heart surgery on a German shepherd puppy as a gesture of gratitude to the many animals used in heart research.

Dr. C. Walton Lillehei, surgeon-in-chief at New York Hospital-Cornell Medical Center, plans to make X-ray studies to day of Kai, the four-month-old pet of Allan and Kevin Fogel, 8-year-old twins of Brooklyn.

On Tuesday, Dr. Lillehei directed a 60-man team in transplanting the heart and kidneys of a 48-year-old psychoanalyst to three recipients.

Dr. Lillehei, a former teacher of Dr. Christian Barnard who performed the first human heart transplant, volunteered to perform the openheart operation "on behalf of the many dogs who have served to benefit mankind in helping develop these techniques."

"Dogs have been the backbone of open-heart surgery," he added, explaining that their hearts are "almost identical" to the human heart.

Dr. Lillehei read about the dog's plight in a letter to The Daily News from Kai's owners.

In the letter, the young boys said their veterinarian had told them that Kai must be put to sleep because he had a congenital heart defect which can only be cured by surgery.

Kai was examined by Dr. Lillehei and admitted to the hospital's kennel for experimental animals Thursday afternoon.

Dr. Lillehei said he and his

Apartment Fire Takes Man's Life

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — A three-alarm fire at a West Side apartment building early today took the life of a 23-year-old man.

The victim was identified as Joseph Nusbaum, who lived alone.

The other occupants of the 42-unit building were evacuated quickly, some with help from firemen and some by jumping from windows. Fifteen persons were taken to Toledo Hospital and treated for smoke inhalation and exposure to cold. None were kept at the hospital.

The fire was reported about 2 a.m.

colleagues suspect that the veterinarian's diagnosis is correct and one of the valves in the pup's heart will have to be replaced.

If the tests confirm this diagnosis, he said, the operation may be performed some time next week.

Views on Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — This is the time of the year when prediction is popular, when peering into the crystal ball is part of the fun of beginning a new year.

It is harmless enough: If you guess right, you can say "I told you so," and if you are wrong, you can forget the whole thing.

But prediction in the area of television is really quite easy simply because it really doesn't change much except in its external form from year to year.

This sage, for instance, fearlessly predicts that within the next 12 months the three television networks will be preoccupied by midwifing into existence a clutch of half-hour situation comedies about a beautiful widow and her bright, cute son. After all, the big hit of this season has been "Julia," about a beautiful widow with a bright, cute son.

It is written here that all three networks will try to come up with variations on the "Laugh-in" theme, and will proclaim each variation to be a "bold new concept in television entertainment."

Some network will bravely decide to drop one of those nightly two-hour movie reruns. Good old movies for TV are getting scarce and the public is not anywhere near as enamored of the lesser movies as it once was. The time will probably be filled with two half-hour situation comedies plus a one-hour variety show headlined by a very young singer with a Southern accent and a guitar.

A number of one-hour Westerns will be interred in TV's Boot Hill come spring while an equal number will be born next September. The heroes will change, but the scripts and the horses will look awfully familiar.

There will be numerous statements from the better-broadcast organizations decrying TV's excessive amount of violence. Network spokesmen will assert that they are being extra careful about that sort of thing—long fights and wholesale killings—but the regular viewers won't notice any real difference.

A show with low ratings but critical acclaim will be canceled and, immediately, there will be a well-organized protest with letters to the networks and to TV columnists and perhaps even some equally well-organized demonstrations before network headquarters. If the protest attracts much attention, it may even keep the show on the air—anyway, for a little while.

Established variety shows will try desperately to insert outrageous political commentary and the late evening conversation shows will try to steer the talk into daring areas in hopes of stimulating controversy or at least some publicity.

Approximately half the viewing audience will complain to friends that "whenever I like a show, they cancel it." The other half will confide that all they ever watch on TV are sports and the educational stations—but somehow are able to report the most recent plot turns to "Peyton Place" or the gags of Rowan and Martin.

GOP Tops Demos In TV Spending

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Republicans outspent the Democrats, $5 million to $3 million, in unprecedented use of television during the 1968 presidential election campaign, the Federal Communications Commission reported Thursday.

The FCC said the GOP spent some $4.2 million on TV during the campaign and another $1 million during primary contests while the Democrats put $2.5 million into video in the final campaigning and $516,030 during the primaries.

Political groupings identified only as "other", but presumably covering mainly the campaign of former Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, spent $681,491 to buy television time for the presidential campaign.

Altogether, the networks reported the parties paid $8.9 million for air time—more than twice the $4.1 million spent for this purpose in the 1964 campaign.

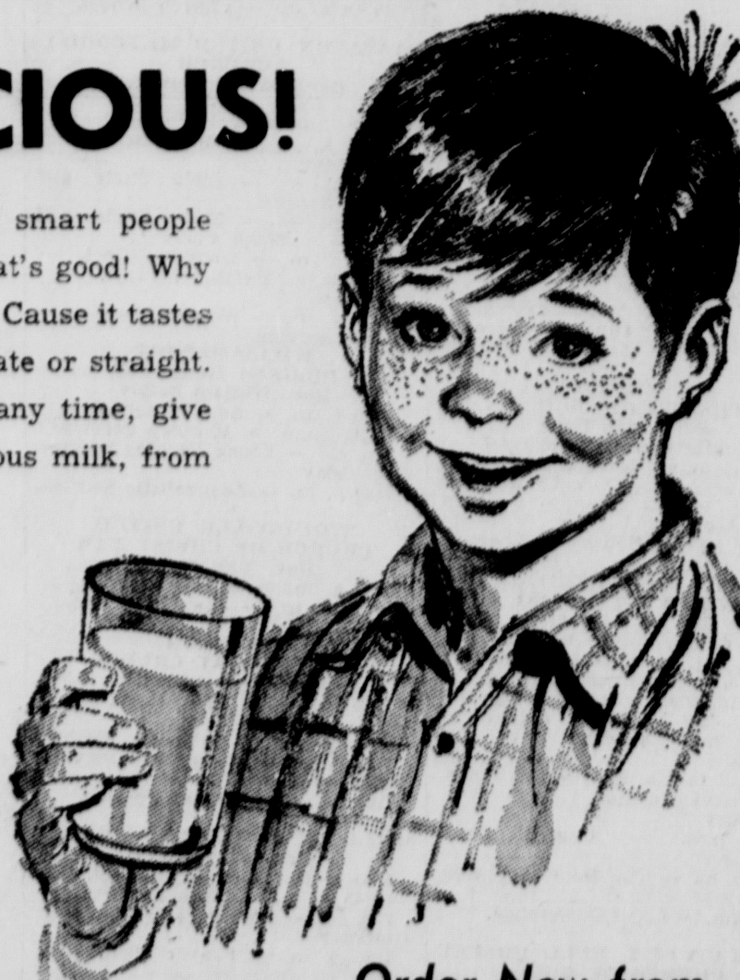

The FCC said presidential and vice presidential candidates spent a total of 96 hours, 11 minutes on the air, but it gave no breakdown on the TV time of each candidate.

Church Attention Swings Toward Poor

By GEORGE W. CORNELL

A return to very cold weather is scheduled for tonight and Saturday, with cold conditions continuing into the first part of next week. An arctic cold front was over extreme Northwest Ohio this morning and moving southeastward across the state.

A high pressure building in the Dakotas will give cold northwesterly winds across Ohio tonight and Saturday.

Early this morning seasonable temperatures prevailed with readings in the 20s under cloudy skies. A little light snow will accompany the cold front as it moves along and snow flurries will develop tonight mostly in the east and north portions of the state.

Low temperatures for tonight will range between zero and 15 above while high readings Saturday will be between 10 and 20.

FORECASTS

OHIO — Windy and much colder tonight and Saturday with scattered snow flurries. Locally heavy snow squalls developing tonight near Lake Erie. Low tonight zero to 10 above northwest and 5 to 15 elsewhere.

NORTHWEST OHIO — Variable cloudiness, windy and much colder tonight and Saturday with snow flurries. Low tonight zero to 10 above. High Saturday 10-15.

SOUTHWEST, SOUTHEAST, CENTRAL, EAST CENTRAL OHIO — Variable cloudiness, windy and much colder tonight and Saturday with scattered snow flurries. Low tonight 5-15. High Saturday 10-20.

OHIO FIVE-DAY FORECAST

The temperatures Saturday through Wednesday will average much below normal with highs in the teens and low 20s and lows 5 to 10 above. Colder Saturday, continuing very cold through Wednesday. Precipitation melted averaging around one-quarter inch south and west to one-half to three-quarters of an inch northeast occurring as snow over the state Saturday. Frequent periods of snow flurries and snow squalls northeast through Wednesday.

Two Ohioans Die In Mexico Crash

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Four Americans killed Tuesday when their car was forced off the road to Acapulco have been identified by the U.S. Embassy.

An embassy spokesman said they were Henry C. Hillmer and his wife Ruth Anne of New Hartford, Iowa, Mrs. Lucille Ryne of Dayton, Ohio, and Mrs. Marion Glaser of Xenia, Ohio.

The car in which they were riding plunged down a 90-foot embankment after leaving the road to avoid colliding with a car that was passing an oncoming truck, authorities said.

Damage Suits Are Settled

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Damage suits resulting from 1964 traffic accidents and totaling more than $400,000 were settled Thursday as a U.S. District Court jury deliberated the cases.

The settlement, between The Ford Motor Co. and the executors of the estates of Dr. Hildegund Nowara of Canton and her son Christopher, came after a three-week trial.

It was part of the agreement that the terms of the settlement would not be made public.

Pup To Get Open-Heart Operation

NEW YORK (AP) — The surgeon who directed a heart and kidney transplant on New Year's Eve has agreed to perform open-heart surgery on a German shepherd puppy as a gesture of gratitude to the many animals used in heart research.

Dr. C. Walton Lillehei, surgeon-in-chief at New York Hospital-Cornell Medical Center, plans to make X-ray studies to day of Kai, the four-month-old pet of Allan and Kevin Fogel, 8-year-old twins of Brooklyn.

On Tuesday, Dr. Lillehei directed a 60-man team in transplanting the heart and kidneys of a 48-year-old psychoanalyst to three recipients.

Dr. Lillehei, a former teacher of Dr. Christiaan Barnard who performed the first human heart transplant, volunteered to perform the openheart operation "on behalf of the many dogs who have served to benefit mankind in helping develop these techniques."

"Dogs have been the backbone of open-heart surgery," he added, explaining that their hearts are "almost identical" to the human heart.

Dr. Lillehei read about the dog's plight in a letter to The Daily News from Kai's owners. In the letter, the young boys said their veterinarian had told them that Kai must be put to sleep because he had a congenital heart defect which can only be cured by surgery.

Kai was examined by Dr. Lillehei and admitted to the hospital's kennel for experimental animals Thursday afternoon. Dr. Lillehei said he and his

Apartment Fire Takes Man's Life

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — A three-alarm fire at a West Side apartment building early today took the life of a 23-year-old man.

The victim was identified as Joseph Nussbaum, who lived alone.

The other occupants of the 42-unit building were evacuated quickly, some with help from firemen and some by jumping from windows. Fifteen persons were taken to Toledo Hospital and treated for smoke inhalation and exposure to cold. None were kept at the hospital.

The fire was reported about 2 a.m.

colleagues suspect that the veterinarian's diagnosis is correct and one of the valves in the pup's heart will have to be replaced.

If the tests confirm this diagnosis, he said, the operation may be performed some time next week.

Views on Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — This is the time of the year when prediction is popular, when peering into the crystal ball is part of the fun of beginning a new year.

It is harmless enough: If you guess right, you can say "I told you so," and if you are wrong, you can forget the whole thing. But prediction in the area of television is really quite easy simply because it really doesn't change much except in its external from year to year.

This sage, for instance, fearlessly predicts that within the next 12 months the three television networks will be preoccupied by midwifing into existence a clutch of half-hour situation comedies about a beautiful widow and her bright, cute son. After all, the big hit of this season has been "Julia," about a beautiful widow with a bright, cute son.

It is written here that all three networks will try to come up with variations on the "Laugh-in" theme, and will proclaim each variation to be a "bold new concept in television entertainment."

Some network will bravely decide to drop one of those nightly two-hour movie reruns. Good old movies for TV are getting scarce and the public is not anywhere near as enamored of the lesser movies as it once was. The time will probably be filled with two half-hour situation comedies plus a one-hour variety show headlined by a very young singer with a Southern accent and a guitar.

A number of one-hour Westerns will be interred in TV's Boot Hill come spring while an equal number will be born next September. The heroes will change, but the scripts and the horses will look awfully familiar.

There will be numerous state-ments from the better-broadcast organizations decrying TV's excessive amount of violence. Network spokesmen will assert that they are being extra careful about that sort of thing—long fights and wholesale killings—but the regular viewers won't notice any real difference.

A show with low ratings but critical acclaim will be canceled and, immediately, there will be a well-organized protest with letters to the networks and to TV columnists and perhaps even some equally well-organized demonstrations before network headquarters. If the protest attracts much attention, it may even keep the show on the air—anyway, for a little while.

Established variety shows will try desperately to insert outrageous political commentary and the late evening conversation shows will try to steer the talk into daring areas in hopes of stimulating controversy or at least some publicity.

Approximately half the viewing audience will complain to friends that "whenever I like a show, they cancel it." The other half will confide that all they ever watch on TV are sports and the educational stations—but somehow are able to report to "Peyton Place" or the gags of Rowan and Martin.

Recommended weekend viewing:

Tonight—"Male of the Species," NBC, 8:30-10 EST, special consisting of three short plays with Lawrence Olivier as narrator and starring Sean Connery, Michael Caine and Paul Scofield.

Sunday—"My Friend Tony," NBC, 10-11 p.m., premiere, police action series with James Whitmore and newcomer Enzo Cerusico.

County Recorder Lists December Transactions

Activity in the county recorder's office for the month of December almost paralleled recordings of the previous month.

Recordings processed consisted of 104 deeds as compared to 105 deeds during November. There were 73 real estate mortgages processed in December; 75 in November.

The entire monthly report as submitted by Hazel M. Yeatts, county recorder, lists 224 total recordings processed; 47 miscellaneous recordings; real estate mortgages involving $778,049.29; cancellation of 57 real estate mortgages involving money in the amount of $565,600.96; and the filing and processing of 279 financing statements.

GOP Tops Demos In TV Spending

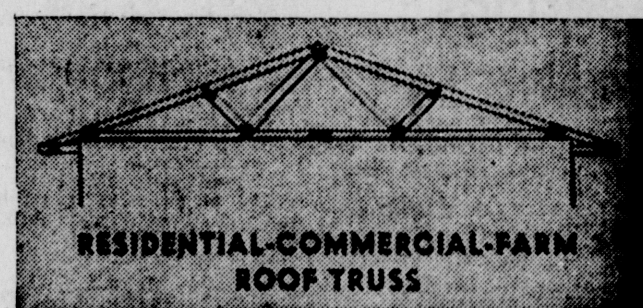

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Republicans outspent the Democrats, $5 million to $3 million, in unprecedented use of television during the 1968 presidential election campaign, the Federal Communications Commission reported Thursday.

The FCC said the GOP spent some $4.2 million on TV during the campaign and another $1 million during primary contests while the Democrats put $2.5 million into video in the final campaigning and $516,030 during the primaries.

Political groupings identified only as "other," but presumably covering mainly the campaign of former Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, spent $681,491 to buy television time for the presidential campaign.

Altogether, the networks reported the parties paid $8.9 million for air time—more than twice the $4.1 million spent for this purpose in the 1964 campaign.

The FCC said presidential and vice presidential candidates spent a total of 96 hours, 11 minutes on the air, but it gave no breakdown on the TV time of each candidate.

Fairmont, W.Va. Moves To 2nd In Cage Rankings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Fairmont of West Virginia, which held third place in The Associated Press small college basketball poll by one point last week, has moved up to second — by one point.

The Falcons received two first-place votes in the nationwide balloting by 13 sports writers and broadcasters. Their total of 180 points enabled them to replace Trinity of Texas in the runner-up spot by that one point.

The Panthers of Kentucky Wesleyan got nine first-place votes and 246 points to maintain their No. 1 ranking. Both Kentucky Wesleyan, last season's NCAA College Division champions, and Fairmont have 8-0 records. Trinity is 7-2.

Kentucky Wesleyan and Trinity were idle last week while Fairmont won its only game from Beckley 91-75.

Ashland of Ohio and Stephen F. Austin climbed one place each to fourth and fifth, respectively, on the strength of 2-0 records in the week which ended last Saturday. Stephen F. Austin also had one first-place vote.

Central State of Ohio also won both its games but dropped from fourth to sixth.

Southwestern Louisiana and Gannon moved into the Top Ten, replacing Cheyney, Pa., State and West Virginia State. The Louisiana team, idle last week after beating three major teams the week before, picked up one first-place vote and jumped from 15th to seventh. Gannon jumped from 12th into a tie for eighth with Youngstown State, which had the other first-place vote.

Long Beach State, eighth a week ago, brought up the bottom of the Top Ten.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes, records through last Saturday's games and total points:

1. Ky. Wesleyan (9) 8-0 246
2. Fairmont W.Va. (2) 8-0 180
3. Trinity, Tex. 7-2 179
4. Ashland, Ohio 8-1 142
5. Steph. F. Austin (1) 9-1 130
6. Cent. State, Ohio 4-1 128
7. SW La. (1) 7-4 110
8. Gannon 6-2 85
9. Youngstown St. (1) 6-0 85
10. Long Beach State 10-1 53

Teays Valley Sectional Tournney Set

The Teays Valley sectional basketball tournament will start Feb. 14 at Teays Valley High School.

Benis Lutz, Teays Valley local superintendent, is the tournament manager.

Columbus Wehrle replaces Columbus St. Mary High School in the tournament.

Besides Wehrle, the teams playing at Teays Valley are:

Westfall, Logan Elm, West Jefferson, Madison South, The Plains, Ohio Deaf, Academy, Amanda Clearcreek and Canal Winchester.

Of those teams, Westfall and Canal Winchester are currently unbeaten while Amanda Clearcreek has lost only once.

Cowboys Face Vikings; Ego Bruised

MIAMI (AP) — Dallas Coach Tom Landry isn't sure what to expect from his Cowboys Sunday when they meet the Minnesota Vikings in the annual runner-up playoff of the National Football League.

Landry is just as curious as many people to see how his players react after their crushing defeat by Cleveland in the Eastern Conference championship game two weeks ago. The favored Cowboys bowed out of the championship picture 31-20.

Landry said he had no doubts that his fine team would recover from the bruised ego suffered in the Cleveland game. "We'll recover in time. You have to recover in this business. It's really hard to say how the players feel. They seem in good spirits, which probably is a good sign they'll play well."

The Vikings, winners of the Central Division, also are playing and working. Coach Bud Grant, however, expressed confidence his team would play well Sunday. They played well in losing the Western title to Baltimore 24-14.

"I know we're not going to be flat," said Grant. "There is far too much pride among the players to let themselves get down. They're too smart to let that happen."

Both teams report they are in good health.

Albie Taylor, Utah State tailback, averaged 31.9 yards for 15 kickoff returns in 1967.

Tulsa Tops Cincy In Cage Action

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A tight man-to-man Tulsa defense limited Cincinnati to 15 points in the second half and the Golden Hurricanes upset the tenth-ranked Bearcats 57-50 in Ohio college basketball action Thursday night.

In other games, Toledo nipped Morris Harvey 66-62 and Ashland bounced J. F. Kennedy of Nebraska 43-27. And in the Booster Club tournament at Findlay, Hanover of Indiana clubbed Heidelberg 97-81 and Findlay dumped Cleveland State 81-68.

Cincinnati led Tulsa 35-28 at the half but the Golden Hurricanes switched defenses and stymied the Bearcats who at one point failed to score for 7½ minutes. Center Jim Ard picked up 16 points for Cincinnati while Rick Robertson and Bob Schwallie each had 10. The Bearcats are now 1-1 in the Missouri Valley Conference and 7-2 for the season.

Boston's Bruins Tie With Montreal

Boston's boisterous Bruins have moved into a first place tie with Montreal in the National Hockey League's East Division.

The Bruins muscled their way past New York 4-2 Thursday night while Pittsburgh was stunning the Canadiens 5-2. In the only other game played, Philadelphia tied Chicago 2-2.

Defense man Bobby Orr sparked the Bruins, scoring one goal, assisting on another and breaking up Ranger plays all night. Orr's unassisted goal with 10 second gone in the third period sealed New York's fate.

Toledo had trouble getting past stubborn Morris Harvey in a game which was tied seven times in the second half. Bob Miller and Steve Mix put Toledo ahead by five points with about six minutes to go and the Rockets held the lead. Miller dumped in 24 points while Mix had 16 points and grabbed off 14 rebounds.

Ashland has yielded only 336 points in 10 games this year and continues its hold as the national defensive leader among small colleges. Jay Franson led the Eagles with 16 points.

Findlay and Hanover of Indiana won spots in Saturday's championship game of the Findlay Tournament. Hanover, now 9-0, whalloped Heidelberg 97-81. Mike Fisher led the Student Princes, 3-3 on the season, with 15 points.

Findlay overcame a 35-29 halftime deficit to give Cleveland State its sixth defeat in seven starts. Frank Minnig led the Oilers with 23 points while Mike Campbell dumped in 14 for Cleveland State.

McNeill Suspended As Hockey Player

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — Billy McNeill of Vancouver, the Western Hockey League's most valuable player in 1965 and 1966, was suspended Thursday by Coach Joe Crozier.

Crozier said McNeill was suspended for refusing to report to the Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League.

McNeill, 33, missed 10 games at the start of the season because of a salary dispute and hasn't played much since.

Wrestling Meet Starting Time Delayed Tonight

The Circleville High School wrestling match will begin at 7 p.m. instead of 6:30 p.m. today as planned, it was announced by Brent Bell.

Bell noted that Portsmouth High School requested the delay in the starting time.

The CHS wrestling mentor also noted the team is undefeated. In yesterday's Herald, it was mistakenly reported they have a 2-1 record.

Nevele Pride, a 3-year-old pacer, won 21 of 24 races during 1968, including the Hambletonian. The colt earned a record $427,440.

Rockets Topple Houston 120-102 In ABA Action

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Denver Rockets continue to stay within hailing distance of Oakland in the American Basketball Association's Western Division race.

The Rockets downed hapless Houston 120-102 Thursday night and sliced idle Oakland's lead to 7½ games. In other action, Miami beat Kentucky 110-106 and New Orleans nipped Los Angeles 112-111 in overtime.

Jeff Congdon, a substitute, ignited the fourth-quarter rally that sent Denver to its 14th victory in 16 home games. The former Brigham Young star hit a field goal and then stole the ball and made a perfect pass for another basket that shook the Rockets loose from an 83-83 tie.

Willie Murrell scored 23 of his 29 points in the second half as Miami rallied to beat Kentucky and move into a virtual tie with the Colonels for second place in the Eastern Division. Kentucky's Darel Carrier took scoring honors with 30 points but the Colonels had only eight men in uniform and had to play cautiously.

New Orleans rebounded from an eight-point halftime deficit to edge Los Angeles. Jimmy Jones tied it in regulation time at 98-all with two free throws and Mike Butler's made two more in overtime to cement the triumph.

Butler's pair gave the Bucs a four-point lead with seconds to go and offset a three-point field goal by LA's Larry Miller. Steve Jones paced the winners with 31 points while Red Robins added 25 and Jimmy Jones 24.

Cowboys Face Vikings; Ego Bruised

MIAMI (AP) — Dallas Coach Tom Landry isn't sure what to expect from his Cowboys Sunday when they meet the Minnesota Vikings in the annual runner-up playoff of the National Football League.

Landry is just as curious as many people to see how his players react after their crushing defeat by Cleveland in the Eastern Conference championship game two weeks ago. The favored Cowboys bowed out of the championship picture 31-20.

Landry said he had no doubts that his fine team would recover from the bruised ego suffered in the Cleveland game. "We'll recover in time. You have to recover in this business. It's really hard to say how the players feel. They seem in good spirits, which probably is a good sign they'll play well."

The Vikings, winners of the Central Division, also are playing and working. Coach Bud Grant, however, expressed confidence his team would play well Sunday. They played well in losing the Western title to Baltimore 24-14.

"I know we're not going to be flat," said Grant. "There is far too much pride among the players to let themselves get down. They're too smart to let that happen."

Both teams report they are in good health.

Albie Taylor, Utah State tailback, averaged 31.9 yards for 15 kickoff returns in 1967.

Tulsa Tops Cincy In Cage Action

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A tight man-to-man Tulsa defense limited Cincinnati to 15 points in the second half and the Golden Hurricanes upset the tenth-ranked Bearcats 57-50 in Ohio college basketball action Thursday night.

In other games, Toledo nipped Morris Harvey 66 - 62 and Ashland bounced J. F. Kennedy of Nebraska 43-27. And in the Booster Club tournament at Findlay, Hanover of Indiana clubbed Heidelberg 97-81 and Findlay dumped Cleveland State 81-68.

Cincinnati led Tulsa 35-28 at the half but the Golden Hurricanes switched defenses and stymied the Bearcats who at one point failed to score for 7½ minutes. Center Jim Ard picked up 16 points for Cincinnati while Rick Robertson and Bob Schwallie each had 10. The Bearcats are now 1-1 in the Missouri Valley Conference and 7-2 for the season.

Boston's Bruins Tie With Montreal

Boston's boisterous Bruins have moved into a first place tie with Montreal in the National Hockey League's East Division.

The Bruins muscled their way past New York 4-2 Thursday night while Pittsburgh was stunning the Canadiens 5-2. In the only other game played, Philadelphia tied Chicago 2-2.

Defense man Bobby Orr sparked the Bruins, scoring one goal, assisting on another and breaking up Ranger plays all night. Orr's unassisted goal with 10 second gone in the third period sealed New York's fate.

Toledo had trouble getting past stubborn Morris Harvey in a game which was tied seven times in the second half. Bob Miller and Steve Mix put Toledo ahead by five points with about six minutes to go and the Rockets held the lead. Miller dumped in 24 points while Mix had 16 points and grabbed off 14 rebounds.

Ashland has yielded only 336 points in 10 games this year

Rockets Topple Houston 120-102 In ABA Action

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Denver Rockets continue to stay within hailing distance of Oakland in the American Basketball Association's Western Division race.

The Rockets downed hapless Houston 120-102 Thursday night and sliced idle Oakland's lead to 7½ games. In other action, Miami beat Kentucky 110-106 and New Orleans nipped Los Angeles 112-111 in overtime.

Jeff Congdon, a substitute, ignited the fourth-quarter rally that sent Denver to its 14th victory in 16 home games. The former Brigham Young star hit a field goal and then stole the ball and made a perfect pass for another basket that shook the Rockets loose from an 83-83 tie.

Willie Murrell scored 23 of his 29 points in the second half as Miami rallied to beat Kentucky and continues its hold as the national defensive leader among small colleges. Jay Franson led the Eagles with 16 points.

Findlay and Hanover of Indiana won spots in Saturday's championship game of the Findlay Tournament. Hanover, now 9-0, whalloped Heidelberg 97-81. Mike Fisher led the Student Princes, 3-3 on the season, with 15 points.

Findlay overcame a 35-29 halftime deficit to give Cleveland State its sixth defeat in seven starts. Frank Minnig led the Oilers with 28 points while Mike Campbell dumped in 14 for Cleveland State.

McNeill Suspended As Hockey Player

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — Billy McNeill of Vancouver, the Western Hockey League's most valuable player in 1965 and 1966, was suspended Thursday by Coach Joe Crozier.

Crozier said McNeill was suspended for refusing to report to the Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League.

McNeill, 33, missed 10 games at the start of the season because of a salary dispute and hasn't played much since.

Wrestling Meet Starting Time Delayed Tonight

The Circleville High School wrestling match will begin at 7 p.m. instead of 6:30 p.m. today as planned, it was announced by Brent Bell.

Bell noted that Portsmouth High School requested the delay in the starting time.

The CHS wrestling mentor also noted the team is undefeated. In yesterday's Herald, it was mistakenly reported they have a 2-1 record.

Nevele Pride, a 3-year-old pacer, won 21 of 24 races during 1968, including the Hambletonian. The colt earned a record $427,440.

PUBLIC NOTICE
To any department or agency of the State of Ohio or any political subdivision thereof, or any quasi public board or agency:
PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT:
(1) Pursuant to Secs. 123.031 and 123.032, Revised Code, pertaining to the sale or transfer of certain unnecessary or unused State canal land, the Department of Public Works is conducting a survey to determine the future need of said canal land for projects of public nature. Portions of said canal land, referred to as Parcel Nos. O&E-PIC-2961.1100 plus-minus and O&E-PIC-3285.5100 plus-minus-R(71 plus-minus) are described as follows:
PARCEL NO. O&E-PIC-2961.1100 plus-minus
Being that portion of the abandoned Ohio and Erie Canal property situated in Walnut Township, Section 28, Pickaway County, leased to Richard Toole and E. L. A. Beth Toole, (O&E-1151), beginning at Canal Station 2961.1100 plus-minus of the A. Albright Survey and extending thence southerly with the full width of the canal property 274 plus-minus feet to Canal Station 2963.5100 plus-minus, and containing 1.2 acres, more or less.
PARCEL NO. O&E-PIC-3285.5100 plus-minus - R(71 plus-minus)
Being that portion of the abandoned Ohio and Erie Canal property situated in the City of Circleville, Pickaway County, leased to Cleo G. Goodchild, (O&E-1646), further described as a 30 ft. strip of land used for driveway purposes, parallel to, and 66 feet west of Canal Street, extending 355 plus-minus feet south of the south line of Mound Street, and containing 0.313 acre, more or less.
(2) Applications for the above described land may be submitted to ALFRED C. GLENOW, DIRECTOR, DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS, 707 OHIO DEPARTMENTS BUILDING, COLUMBUS, OHIO, 43215, and must be on file on or before January 24, 1969.
(3) All applications shall be accompanied by evidence, satisfactory to the Director of Public Works, that land sought to be obtained will be used solely for public purposes.
(4) If no application is received within the above specified time, it will be assumed that no department or agency of the State of Ohio, or any political subdivision thereof, or any quasi public board or agency, has any present or future need for the above State canal land, and said land will then be sold to the above named lessees in accordance with Sec. 123.031, Revised Code.

Freshman Members Of U.S. Senate Are Profiled

WASHINGTON (AP) — He's 47, a lawyer with at least six years experience in politics, is married and has three children, served in World War II and last November won a hard, close fight.

He has little reputation nationally. His political beliefs tend to be moderate.

Who is he? The newest member of what often is called the world's most exclusive club—the U.S. Senate.

This is a composite picture of the 15-member Class of '69 that is sworn in today. Here is a breakdown on the individuals:

William B. Saxbe, a long-shot last spring when he agreed to run for the seat held by the veteran Democrat Frank J. Lausche, is 52, and had been Ohio's Republican attorney general since 1963.

Lausche lost in the Democratic primary to former Rep. John J. Gilligan, and Saxbe beat Gilligan in November.

Elected a member of the Ohio General Assembly in 1946, Saxbe was speaker in 1947-48. The Saxbes have three children.

Former Rep. Richard S. Schweiker, R-Pa., defeated Democrat Joseph S. Clark, a two-term thrice-married, 66-year-old Senate dove whom Schweiker termed a "drawing room liberal."

Schweiker, 42, a four-term liberal-moderate is married and the father of four children. He's a businessman, a Navy veteran and 1950 Phi Beta Kappa graduate.

Alan M. Cranston, 54, leaves a Los Angeles real estate and investment business to become California's new Democratic senator.

A foreign news correspondent in the 1930's, he wrote and published an anti-Nazi version of Mein Kampf that sold 500,000 copies in the United States. He was an Army private during World War II.

In 1958, he was the first Democrat elected Controller of California in 72 years. In 1964, he was beaten by Pierre Salinger, former White House press secretary, for the California Democratic senatorial nomination. He and his wife have two sons.

Maryland Republican Charles W. Mathias, moved his office Thursday across the Capitol Plaza from the House to the Senate side.

Mathias, 46, defeated Democrat Sen. Daniel B. Brewster, 45, in November. He is often called a liberal or moderate and is considered an excellent compromiser in such controversies as open housing. He was recognized in the House for his work on civil rights legislation and anticrime bills.

He is married and has two sons.

Edward J. Gurney, who will be 55 Jan. 12, is Florida's first Republican senator since Reconstruction. A Maine-born conservative he won the Senate seat vacated by Democrat George A. Smathers with a big-margin victory over Democrat LeRoy Collins, former governor. Gurney served in the Army during World War II, was wounded and won the Silver Star.

An attorney and graduate of Harvard and Duke University law schools, Gurney became mayor of Winter Park, Fla., in 1961. He served three terms in the House of Representatives 1963-68. Gurney and his wife, Natalie Alhborn Gurney, have two children.

James B. Allen, 56-year-old attorney and Democrat, takes the Senate seat from Alabama held by Democrat Lister Hill, who did not seek re-election. Allen whipped Republican Perry O. Hooper in November. Allen was twice lieutenant governor of Alabama and served in both the Alabama House and Senate. He was a strong supporter of former Gov. George Wallace.

Marlow Webster Cook, a Kentucky judge for the last eight years, succeeds Republican Thurston Morton of Kentucky, who did not seek re-election. Republican Cook, 42, served in the Kentucky House of Representatives for two terms. He is married and has four daughters and a son.

Barry Goldwater returns to the U.S. Senate where he served 12 years before his unsuccessful 1964 bid for the presidency.

The 60-year-old Arizona Republican is taking over the seat of retiring Sen. Carl Hayden, a Democrat who was president pro tem of the Senate and a member of Congress 57 years.

Goldwater defeated an administrative aide to Hayden in the general election.

After being elected to the Senate in 1952, Goldwater steadily built a reputation as a spokesman for conservatives in the Republican party. He vacated his Senate seat to run for the presidency, losing a landslide decision to President Johnson.

He was an executive in the family's department store business before jumping into politics.

Iowa Democrat Harold Hughes, is a one time truck driver who licked a drinking problem.

After Army Service in World War II, Hughes became manager of an Iowa truck line, rose to lead trucking associations, formed his own insurance and real estate business, became a member of the Iowa Commerce Commission and was elected the state's governor in 1962. His rise involved a switch of parties. He was once an active Republican.

Hughes, now 45, has been criticized

Anti-Crime Bill To Be Pushed By Cincy Solon

CINCINNATI (AP)—An Ohio senator plans to introduce bills to the General Assembly to rid streets of "marauding gangs of youths" by making parents liable for their crimes.

Stanley Aronoff of Cincinnati said Thursday he will propose that parents be liable for up to $2,000 for both malicious assault upon other persons by their children, and malicious destruction of property.

"The theory of both bills is that if a parent knows that there may be a civil action against him he will keep closer watch on his child," Aronoff explained.

He said support for such legislation has come from law enforcement agencies, public and parochial school systems and Parent-Teacher Associations, and community newspapers.

ical of the Johnson Administration's handling of the Vietnam war.

Alaska Democrat Mike Gravel won a general election faceoff with the man he replaces, Democrat Ernest Gruening, and a determined Republican nominee, Elmer Rasmuson.

Gruening, 81, lost the primary to Gravel, 38-year-old Anchorage businessman, then lost a write-in campaign.

Gravel, a native of Springfield, Mass., is in the real estate business at Anchorage. He is a former speaker of the Alaska House. He and his wife, Rita, have two children.

Theodore F. Stevens was appointed Alaska's Republican Senator by Gov. Walter J. Hickel following the death of the late Democrat E. L. Bartlett. He will serve two years, until a general election.

Stevens, 45-year-old Anchorage lawyer, has been majority leader of the Alaska House and twice unsuccessfully sought election to the U.S. Senate. He is the 49th state's first Republican senator.

He was a pilot in China during World War II. He and his wife,

Brown To Be Sworn As New Attorney General

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The nameplate of attorney general-designate Paul W. Brown was placed on the Attorney General office door early today in a brief ceremony.

Brown, a former Ohio Supreme Court Justice, will be sworn in as attorney general at 2 p.m. Saturday.

William B. Saxbe, elected to the U.S. Senate in the Nov. 5 general election, resigned as attorney general effective Thursday.

Brown spent most of Thursday moving into his new office. His successor on the high court, Franklin County Municipal Court Judge Robert M. Duncan, will be sworn in as a Supreme Court justice on Jan. 7.

Luxury Living Proves Tainted

NEW YORK (AP) — Several blocks of Sutton Place luxury apartments have been inundated for a month in a flow of raw sewage into basements of buildings where five-room apartments sell for $70,000 and carry monthly maintenance charges of up to $600.

An 18-inch sewer line has ruptured 12 feet beneath Sutton Place and the city's repair crew has been at work for three weeks. They hope to install a new pipe by next week.

And while many residents worry about the sewage, they hesitate to speak out, for fear that publicity will lower the value of their apartments. But complaints of the stench have come from residents as high as the 12th floor.

Ann, have five children. No stranger to Washington, Stevens was Interior department counsel in the Eisenhower administration.

Henry Bellmon, a husky wheat farmer who sparked the Republican resurgence in Oklahoma, won election to the Senate by ousting veteran Democratic Mike Monroney.

The 47-year-old ex-Marine officer began mapping his Senate bid in 1966 soon after completing a four-year term as Oklahoma's first Republican governor. Generally regarded as a conservative, Bellmon established himself as a hawk on Vietnam during the campaign and portrayed Monroney as a "rubber stamp" for "big spending" domestic policies.

Castro Indicates Relations Sweetness And Light Again

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro's speech Thursday marking the 10th anniversary of his revolution indicated he and the leaders of the Soviet Union have decided to ignore some of their major differences.

Speaking at a rally in Havana attended by an estimated million Cubans, the Cuban prime minister praised Cuba's ties with the "Socialist camp and especially its solidarity with the Soviet Union."

A few months ago Castro was accusing the Kremlin of being niggardly with him, but on Thursday he said Soviet aid had "been decisive for this country in these difficult years."

Relations between Castro and the Kremlin had ranged from cool to heated in recent years because the Cuban leader kept on proclaiming his determination to export revolution to overthrow various Latin American governments with which the Soviet Union was trying to improve economic relations.

Relations between Castro and Moscow reached their lowest point since the 1962 missile crisis when more than 40 Soviet-line Cuban Communists were purged last February. At the time, the Castro government accused the Soviet embassy of working against it.

The improvement of relations apparently began with a speech Castro made in August supporting the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia. Castro for some months also has hardly mentioned encouragement of guerrilla warfare and his regime seems to have turned inward to concentrate on its economic difficulties.

At 36, Robert W. Packwood, Oregon Republican, becomes the youngest member of the Senate.

The Portland attorney has served three terms in the Oregon legislature beginning in 1963. He unseated 24-year veteran Democrat Wayne Morse by less than 3,300 votes in a re-counted November election.

Kansas Republican Bob Dole, 45, is a lawyer and was twice decorated for "heroic achievement" in Italy during World War II when he lost use of one arm.

With experience in Kansas politics and as a three term congressman, Dole is an authority on farm problems but would like to establish a national image.

He has a reputation as a mid-western conservative but he says he has liberal leanings in civil rights and other areas and doesn't like such labels.

Missouri's Thomas F. Eagleton, 39, a Democrat, defeated Curtis after having defeated Sen. Edward V. Long, D-Mo., in the primary. A lawyer and post-war Navy veteran he has won several home-state elective offices. He calls himself a liberal.

Three of the escapees were picked up in Omaha, Neb. The four were being held for trials.

Michael said the prisoners used a steel brace from a table wall and dug a hole about 18 inches in diameter through the outer wall.

Judge Fines Self In His First Case

GRAND ISLAND, Neb. (AP) — John R. Higgins of Grand Island had two reasons for going to Police Court Thursday.

He had been designated acting police judge and he also had to appear to answer a charge of allowing his dog to run at large.

Judge Higgins fined defendant Higgins $5 and costs.

Krabach Sets

Agreements

With Employees

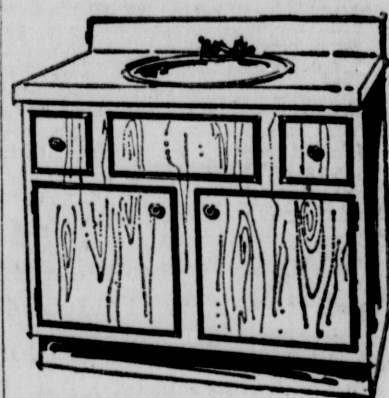

CINCINNATI (AP) — City Manager Richard Krabach completed agreements Thursday on new contracts for Cincinnati's 5,700 employees and will submit them for approval to city council next week.

Krabach and representatives of 1,900 police and firemen arrived Thursday at an agreement providing seven to nine per cent pay hikes costing about $1.9 million.

Earlier in the week, Krabach concluded terms with representatives of the city's 3,800 non-uniformed workers. They would receive a six per cent hike or 18 cents an hour, whichever is higher, plus fringe benefits, at a cost of about $2.3 million.

Thursday's agreed boosts range from $727 a year for patrolmen and firefighters to $1,065 yearly for the police lieutenant colonel.

Freshman Members Of U.S. Senate Are Profiled

WASHINGTON (AP) — He's 47, a lawyer with at least six years experience in politics, is married and has three children, served in World War II and last November won a hard, close fight.

He has little reputation nationally. His political beliefs tend to be moderate.

Who is he? The newest member of what often is called the world's most exclusive club—the U.S. Senate.

This is a composite picture of the 15-member Class of '69 that is sworn in today. Here is a breakdown on the individuals:

William B. Saxbe, a long-shot last spring when he agreed to run for the seat held by the veteran Democrat Frank J. Lausche, is 52, and had been Ohio's Republican attorney general since 1963.

Lausche lost in the Democratic primary to former Rep. John J. Gilligan, and Saxbe beat Gilligan in November.

Elected a member of the Ohio General Assembly in 1946, Saxbe was speaker in 1947-48. The Saxbes have three children.

Former Rep. Richard S. Schweiker, R-Pa., defeated Democrat Joseph S. Clark, a two-term thrice-married, 66-year-old Senate dove whom Schweiker termed a "drawing room liberal."

Schweiker, 42, a four-term liberal-moderate is married and the father of four children. He's a businessman, a Navy veteran and 1950 Phi Beta Kappa graduate.

Alan M. Cranston, 54, leaves a Los Angeles real estate and investment business to become California's new Democratic senator.

A foreign news correspondent in the 1930's, he wrote and published an anti-Nazi version of Mein Kampf that sold 500,000 copies in the United States. He was an Army private during World War II.

In 1958, he was the first Democrat elected Controller of California in 72 years. In 1964, he was beaten by Pierre Salinger, former White House press secretary, for the California Democratic senatorial nomination. He and his wife have two sons.

Maryland Republican Charles W. Mathias, moved his office Thursday across the Capitol Plaza from the House to the Senate side.

Mathias, 46, defeated Democrat Sen. Daniel B. Brewster, 45, in November. He is often called a liberal or moderate and is considered an excellent compromiser in such controversies as open housing. He was recognized in the House for his work on civil rights legislation and anticrime bills.

He is married and has two sons.

Edward J. Gurney, who will be 55 Jan. 12, is Florida's first Republican senator since Reconstruction. A Maine-born conservative he won the Senate seat vacated by Democrat George A. Smathers with a big-margin victory over Democrat LeRoy Collins, former governor. Gurney served in the Army during World War II, was wounded and won the Silver Star.

An attorney and graduate of Harvard and Duke University law schools, Gurney became mayor of Winter Park, Fla., in 1961. He served three terms in the House of Representatives 1963-68. Gurney and his wife, Natalie Ahlborn Gurney, have two children.

James B. Allen, 56-year-old attorney and Democrat, takes the Senate seat from Alabama held by Democrat Lister Hill, who did not seek re-election. Allen whipped Republican Perry O. Hooper in November. Allen was twice lieutenant governor of Alabama and served in both the Alabama House and Senate. He was a strong supporter of former Gov. George Wallace.

Marlow Webster Cook, a Kentucky judge for the last eight years, succeeds Republican Thurston Morton of Kentucky, who did not seek re-election. Republican Cook, 42, served in the Kentucky House of Representatives for two terms. He is married and has four daughters and a son.

Barry Goldwater returns to the U.S. Senate where he served 12 years before his unsuccessful 1964 bid for the presidency.

The 60-year-old Arizona Republican is taking over the seat of retiring Sen. Carl Hayden, a Democrat who was president pro tem of the Senate and a member of Congress 57 years.

Goldwater defeated an administrative aide to Hayden in the general election.

After being elected to the Senate in 1952, Goldwater steadily built a reputation as a spokesman for conservatives in the Republican party. He vacated his Senate seat to run for the presidency, losing a landslide decision to President Johnson.

He was an executive in the family's department store business before jumping into politics.

Iowa Democrat Harold Hughes, is a one time truck driver who licked a drinking problem.

After Army Service in World War II, Hughes became manager of an Iowa truck line, rose to lead trucking associations, formed his own Insurance and real estate business, became a member of the Iowa Commerce Commission and was elected the state's governor in 1962. His rise involved a switch of parties. He was once an active Republican. Hughes, now 45, has been criticized.

Anti-Crime Bill To Be Pushed By Cincy Solon

CINCINNATI (AP)—An Ohio senator plans to introduce bills to the General Assembly to rid streets of "marauding gangs of youths" by making parents liable for their crimes.

Stanley Aronoff of Cincinnati said Thursday he will propose that parents be liable for up to $2,000 for both malicious assault upon other persons by their children, and malicious destruction of property.

"The theory of both bills is that if a parent knows that there may be a civil action against him he will keep closer watch on his child," Aronoff explained.

He said support for such legislation has come from law enforcement agencies, public and parochial school systems and Parent-Teacher Associations, and community newspapers.

ical of the Johnson Administration's handling of the Vietnam war.

Alaska Democrat Mike Gravel won a general election faceoff with the man he replaces, Democrat Ernest Gruening, and a determined Republican nominee, Elmer Rasmuson.

Gruening, 81, lost the primary to Gravel, 38-year-old Anchorage businessman, then lost a write-in campaign.

Gravel, a native of Springfield, Mass., is in the real estate business at Anchorage. He is a former speaker of the Alaska House. He and his wife, Rita, have two children.

Theodore F. Stevens was appointed Alaska's Republican Senator by Gov. Walter J. Hickel following the death of the late Democrat E. L. Bartlett. He will serve two years, until a general election.

Stevens, 45-year-old Anchorage lawyer, has been majority leader of the Alaska House and twice unsuccessfully sought election to the U.S. Senate. He is the 49th state's first Republican senator.

He was a pilot in China during World War II. He and his wife,

Brown To Be Sworn As New Attorney General

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The nameplate of attorney general designate Paul W. Brown was placed on the Attorney General office door early today in a brief ceremony.

Brown, a former Ohio Supreme Court Justice, will be sworn in as attorney general at 2 p.m. Saturday.

William B. Saxbe, elected to the U.S. Senate in the Nov. 5 general election, resigned as attorney general effective Thursday.

Brown spent most of Thursday moving into his new office.

His successor on the high court, Franklin County Municipal Court Judge Robert M. Duncan, will be sworn in as a Supreme Court justice on Jan. 7.
